

Differences	Microeconomics	Macroeconomics
Definition	Microeconomics is the study of economic actions of individuals and small groups of individuals.	Macroeconomics studies the economy as a whole and not a single unit but combination of all.
Concern with	Particular households, firms and industries	National income, general price levels, national output, unemployment and poverty
Objective	On demand side is to maximize utility whereas on the supply side is to minimize profits at minimum cost	Full employment, price stability, economic growth and favourable balance of payments.
Basis	Price mechanism which operates with the help of demand and supply forces	National income, output and employment which are determined by aggregate demand and aggregate supply
Assumptions	Rational behaviour of individuals	Aggregate volume of output of an economy, the extent to which its resources are employed
Limitations	Existence of full employment	Involvement of 'Fallacy of Composition' which doesn't prove true
