The Violence of Care Sameena Mulla, 2023-11-21 Winner 2017 Margaret Mead Award presented by the American Anthropological Association and the Society for Applied Anthropology Honorable Mention 2015 Eileen Basker Memorial Prize presented by the Society for Medical Anthropology Analyzes the ways in which nurses work to collect and preserve evidence while addressing the needs of sexual assault victims as patients Every year in the US thousands of women and hundreds of men participate in sexual assault forensic examinations Drawing on four years of participatory research in a Baltimore emergency room Sameena Mulla reveals the realities of sexual assault response in the forensic age Taking an approach developed at the intersection of medical and legal anthropology she analyzes the ways in which nurses work to collect and preserve evidence

while addressing the needs of sexual assault victims as patients Mulla argues that blending the work of care and forensic investigation into a single intervention shapes how victims of violence understand their own suffering recovery and access to justice in short what it means to be a victim As nurses race the clock to preserve biological evidence institutional practices technologies and even state requirements for documentation undermine the way in which they are able to offer psychological and physical care Yet most of the evidence they collect never reaches the courtroom and does little to increase the number of guilty verdicts Mulla illustrates the violence of care with painstaking detail illuminating why victims continue to experience what many call secondary rape during forensic intervention even as forensic nursing is increasingly professionalized Revictimization can occur even at the hands of conscientious nurses simply because they are governed by institutional requirements that shape their practices The Violence of Care challenges the uncritical adoption of forensic practice in sexual assault intervention and post rape care showing how forensic intervention profoundly impacts the experiences of violence justice healing and recovery for victims of rape and sexual assault

Photo-Attractions

Ajay Sinha, 2022-11-11 In Spring 1938 an Indian dancer named Ram Gopal and an American writer photographer named Carl Van Vechten came together for a photoshoot in New York City Ram Gopal was a pioneer of classical Indian dance and Van Vechten was reputed as a prominent white patron of the African American movement called the Harlem Renaissance Photo Attractions describes the interpersonal desires and expectations of the two men that took shape when the dancer took pose in exotic costumes in front of Van Vechten's Leica camera The spectacular images provide a rare and compelling record of an underrepresented history of transcultural exchanges during the interwar years of early 20th century made briefly visible through photography Art historian Ajay Sinha uses these hitherto unpublished photographs and archival research to raise provocative and important questions about photographic technology colonial histories race sexuality and transcultural desires Challenging the assumption that Gopal was merely objectified by Van Vechten's Orientalist gaze he explores the ways in which the Indian dancer co-authored the photos In Sinha's reading Van Vechten's New York studio becomes a promiscuous contact zone between world cultures where a photo erotic triangle is formed between the American photographer Indian dancer and

German camera A groundbreaking study of global modernity Photo Attractions brings scholarship on American photography literature race and sexual economies into conversation with work on South Asian visual culture dance and gender In these remarkable historical documents it locates the pleasure taken in cultural difference that still resonates today
