Memories of Peking Lin Hai-yin,2020-03-15

Through the keen eyes and curious mind of a young girl Ying tzu we are given a glimpse into the adult world of Peking in the 1920s The five sequential stories in this collection can be read as either stand alone pieces or as a novel due to the cleverly constructed themes and character development Exploring ideas of loss and bewilderment Lin Hai yin carefully captures the transition from childhood to adulthood Shielded by a child s innocence we are taken on a journey of discovery as Ying tzu grapples with the uncertainties of human relationships as well as her developing awareness of the world around her Poignant and poetic it is hard not to be moved by Memories of Peking South Side Stories

Memories of Peking Haiyin Lin,Nancy Ing,Bangyuan Qi,1992-01 In five stories with a continuing cast of characters and many of the qualities of a novel Memories of Peking South Side Stories portrays Peking of the 1930s as seen through the eyes of a little girl These stories differ greatly from many other books on life in China whether about past times or the present day in that they neither dwell on politics nor try to propound beliefs of any kind The stories are simple direct and personal The reader experiences life in Peking through the eyes and innocent mind of the child The author is well known for her perception and humor She handles with great sensitivity and lyricism the sense of loss and bewilderment that arouses the child's awareness of the uncertainties of human relationships even of life itself and which finally catapults her away from childhood joys into the sorrows of the adult world Eileen Chang: The Performativity of Self-Translation Jessica Tsui-yan Li, 2025-06-16 Eileen Chang The Performativity of Self Translation by Jessica Tsui-yan Li focuses on the self translation of Zhang Ailing Eileen Chang 1920 1995 one of the most important Chinese writers of the twentieth century Although self translation is overlooked in most studies of her work Chang's literary achievements are attributed in part to her lifelong self translation of her lived experiences and family sagas as well as her bilingualism This book enriches current studies of self translation by proposing a new hypothesis of theorizing self translation as a performative act characterized by its in betweenness and the aesthetic freedom that the self translator enjoys contextualized within larger debates about translation and the specific practice of self translation in Chinese history in comparison to its Western counterpart Global Identities in Transit Bouchra

Benlemlih, Lahoussine Hamdoune, 2022-03-28 Global Identities in Transit The Ethics and Politics of Representation in World Literatures and Cultures explores the myriad aspects of identity formation and identity representation in an increasingly globalized world Covering a variety of cultural and historical experiences in addition to several texts of world literatures the contributors discuss the configurations of transnationality and transculturality in our postcolonial and globalized world Acknowledging that nationality ethnicity gender and class are continually shaped by historical processes the contributors hone in on the ways that the increase in mobility via migration diaspora and exile render identities always in transit In the face of structural inequalities and social injustices predominant in this context the chapters reflect on the moral obligations of representation This collection will be of interest to scholars of cultural studies postcolonial studies and world literature
