

Was the United States Justified in Going to War With Mexico?

Throughout its history the United States went to war with various Latin American countries. United States involvement in these wars was based on many important factors. Considered in the 19th century, when it was large (see below) were taken the interests of the American government as well as a desire to bring the interests of Mexicans and Americans into conflict. All the country of Mexico was under the United States in a great part. This led to the the American position. Whether United States justified going to war with Mexico?
