Educating in Ethics Across the Professions

Richard M. Jacobs, 2022-08-01 Educating in Ethics for the Professions A Compendium of Research Theory Practice and an Agenda for the Future offers a state of the art discussion on the part of applied professional ethics educators who describe the teaching of ethics for their professions and who collectively represent a wide ranging array of professions The volume begins with an overview of the topics contested ideas and challenges confronting applied ethics educators across the generations providing a foundation from which the concept of ethics education as an integral formation frames each contributor s historical overview identifying how research theory and practice have evolved in each profession to this day

These discussions then turn to the topics contested ideas and challenges emerging in contemporary discourse Each discussion culminates with suggestions regarding what ethics educators must consider for the future The volume closes with a synthesis of the commonalities among and differences between the discussions representing diverse professional perspectives yet framing this history as well as identifying an agenda for teaching applied ethics in the future
