importance of innovative contracts and agile contracting Charter School Funding Considerations Christine Rienstra Kiracofe, Marilyn A. Hirth, Tom Hutton, 2022-01-01 Much has been written about how public schools in the United States are funded However missing in the current literature landscape is a nuanced discussion of funding as it relates to public charter schools This text authored by researchers and professionals working in the charter school world provides readers with a comprehensive overview of issues related to the funding and operation of charter schools The book opens with an introduction to charter schools and how they are funded The financial management and oversight of charter schools and issues related to funding equity including how charter schools impact district school finances are addressed Special considerations for charter schools related to serving special education students and transportation issues are also addressed After reading this book readers will have a thorough understanding of how charter schools are funded and managed financially What the Boss Doesn't Want Us to Know Tom Juravich, Olivia Geho, Andrew Gorry, 2025-04-01 After the labor movement faded away in the lives of most Americans organizing is back Workers are organizing at Starbucks Amazon Apple and Google to name just a few But it s going to take more than picket signs and marches in front of stores and corporate headquarters to win real union contracts with real protections for these workers To beat these firms and others like them workers and their unions will need to learn much more about their adversaries to identify key vulnerabilities and build effective campaigns to win What the Boss Doesn t Want Us to Know is the first volume to teach the basics of conducting this research and how to use it to build winning campaigns It explores how to identify corporate decision makers profit centers growth plans and secondary targets and the kinds of power that activists can use to beat even global giants What the Boss Doesn t Want Us to Know is for more than just professional researchers and campaigners This book offers up a radical new practice for investigating employers The authors propose a member based democratic approach to corporate research that will train an army of rank and file researchers to investigate and beat the firms that control so much of our lives This approach has already been successfully utilized with NewsGuild of New York at the New York Times Reuters Gannett the United Food and Commercial Workers at Tyson Foods workers at Google the Alphabet Workers Union Apple retail workers the Association of Flight Attendants at Delta Air Lines and Trader Joe s United The lessons contained in this book hold great promise to supercharge the new organizing wave currently sweeping across America Managing Information Risk and the Economics of Security M. Eric Johnson, 2009-04-05 Security has been a human concern since the dawn of time With the rise of the digital society information security has rapidly grown to an area of serious study and ongoing research While much research has focused on the technical aspects of computer security far less attention has been given to the management issues of information risk and the economic concerns facing firms and nations Managing Information Risk and the Economics of Security provides leading edge thinking on the security issues facing managers policy makers and individuals Many of the chapters of this volume were presented and debated at the 2008 Workshop on the Economics of Information Security WEIS hosted by the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College Sponsored by Tuck's Center for Digital Strategies and the Institute for Information Infrastructure Protection I3P the conference brought together over one hundred information security experts researchers academics reporters corporate executives government officials cyber crime investigators and prosecutors The group represented the global nature of information security with participants from China Italy Germany Canada Australia Denmark Japan Sweden Switzerland the United Kingdom and the US This volume would not be possible without the dedicated work Xia Zhao of Dartmouth College and now the University of North Carolina Greensboro who acted as the technical editor
