The book provides advice on the most common aspects of the thesis or dissertation process and it is written in a user-friendly manner designed to engage students and to enhance their comfort level as they journey through their candidacy. The importance of each task in the thesis or dissertation journey is addressed along with its role in contributing to a successful outcome and is accompanied by advice and suggestions from previous travellers. The challenges inherent in all stages of the journey are examined along with proactive strategies for avoiding potential bumps in the road. You will not want to depart on this monumental travel adventure without this valuable survival guide.

Your Graduate Training in Psychology
Peter J. Giordano, Stephen F. Davis, Carolyn A. Licht, 2012

Your Graduate Training in Psychology takes current and upcoming graduate students beyond the typical concerns of enrolling into graduate school and guides them on how to complete graduate school successfully. Unlike other books that focus on how to get into graduate school, this book directly addresses the major issues that students confront during their graduate training in psychology. A carefully selected cadre of expert authors in their respective areas illuminate the broad range of processes, practices and procedural issues that face graduate students in both masters and doctoral programs. Ordered chronologically from the first year of graduate school, Settling In to what students need to know as they finish, Winding Down and Gearing Up, students will learn the key skills needed to succeed in all aspects of their academic and professional careers while in school and after beginning
