Fly Away Peter:

Fly Away Peter David Malouf, 2012-10-31 For three very different people brought together by their love for birds life on the Queensland coast in 1914 is the timeless and idyllic world of sandpipers ibises and kingfishers In another hemisphere civilization rushes headlong into a brutal conflict Life there is lived from moment to moment Inevitably the two young men sanctuary owner and employee are drawn to the war and into the mud and horror of the trenches of Armentieres Alone on the beach their friend Imogen the middle aged wildlife photographer must acknowledge for all three of them that the past cannot be held

Fly Away Peter Frank Dickens, 1970 A giraffe whose neck is too short and a bird who can't fly play hide and seek with startling results Missions of Interdependence, 2021-11-01 At the beginning of the twenty first century it is necessary to combine into a productive programme the striving for individual emancipation and the social practice of humanism in order to help the world survive both the ancient pitfalls of particularist terrorism and the levelling tendencies of cultural indifference engendered by the renewed imperialist arrogance of hegemonial global capital In this book thirty five scholars address and negotiate in a spirit of learning and understanding an exemplary variety of intercultural splits and fissures that have opened up in the English speaking world Their methodology can be seen to constitute a seminal field of intellectual signposts They point out ways and means of responsibly assessing colonial predicaments and postcolonial developments in six regions shaped in the past by the British Empire and still associated today through their allegiance to the idea of a Commonwealth of Nations They show how a new ethic of literary self assertion interpretative mediation and critical responsiveness can remove the deeply ingrained prejudices silences and taboos established by discrimination against race class and gender The Pain of Unbelonging, 2007-01-01 Beyond the obvious and enduring socio economic ravages it unleashed on indigenous cultures white settler colonization in Australasia also inflicted profound damage on the collective psyche of both of the communities that inhabited the contested space of the colonial world The acute sense of alienation that colonization initially provoked in the colonized and colonizing populations of Australia and New Zealand has recent studies indicate developed into an endemic existential pathology Evidence of the psychological fallout from the trauma of geographical deracination cultural disorientation and ontological destabilization can be found not only in the state of anomie and self destructive patterns of behaviour that now characterize the lives of indigenous Australian and Maori peoples but also in the perpetually faltering identity discourse and cultural rootlessness of the present descendants of the countries Anglo Celtic settlers It is with the literary expression of this persistent condition of alienation that the essays gathered in the present volume are concerned Covering a heterogeneous selection of contemporary Australasian literature what these critical studies convincingly demonstrate is that more than two hundred years after the process of colonisation was set in motion the experience that Germaine Greer has dubbed the pain of unbelonging continues unabated constituting a dominant thematic concern in the writing produced today by Australian and New Zealand authors

Alice Munro Robert Thacker, 2016-09-22 The awarding of the Nobel Prize in Literature to the Canadian writer Alice Munro in 2013 confirmed her position as a master of the short story form This book explores Munro s work from a full range of critical perspectives focussing on three of her most popular and important published collections Hateship Friendship Courtship Loveship Marriage 2001 Runaway 2004 and her final collection Dear Life 2012 With chapters written by the world s leading critics of Munro s work the short story form and contemporary Canadian writing this book explores such themes as love and marriage sex fate gender and humor in her writings as well as her approaches to narrative form and autobiography In these three late collections Munro sharply articulates again and again the mysteries of being itself

Texts and Their Worlds II K. Narayana Chandran, National Identity in Contemporary Australian Opera Michael Halliwell, 2017-09-11 Opera has been performed in Australia for more than two hundred years yet none of the operas written before the Second World War have become part of the repertoire It is only in the late 1970s and early 1980s that there is evidence of the successful systematic production of indigenous opera The premiere of Voss by Richard Meale and David Malouf in 1986 was a watershed in the staging and reception of new opera and there has been a diverse series of new works staged in the last thirty years not only by the national company but also by thriving regional institutions The emergence of a thriving operatic tradition in contemporary Australia is inextricably enmeshed in Australian cultural consciousness and issues of national identity In this study of eighteen representative contemporary operas Michael Halliwell elucidates the ways in which the operas reflect and engage with the issues facing contemporary Australians Stylistically these eighteen operas vary greatly The musical idiom is diverse ranging from works in a modernist idiom such as The Ghost Wife Whitsunday Fly Away Peter Black River and Bride of Fortune to Voss Batavia Bliss Lindy Midnight Son The Riders The Summer of the Seventeenth Doll and The Children s Bach being works which straddle several musical styles A number of operas draw strongly on musical theatre including The Eighth
