Feminist Issues Race Class And Sexuality 5th Edition:

Exploring Political and Gender Relations Valentina Marinescu, 2017-01-06 The present volume offers a contemporary multicultural approach to the controversial relationship between politics media and society The contributors here analyse such links from a variety of different perspectives and represent perspectives from various countries across Europe Asia North America and South America Despite their geographical diversity they manage to reach a common language in their studies offering a re positioning of the study of media society and politics The new perspectives offered by this volume will be of interest to any media studies scholar because they bring to light new ideas new methodologies and results that could be further developed It allows readers to explore these unique insights and to easily digest the content and acknowledge the impact of media on society and politics

On the Politics of Ugliness Sara Rodrigues, Ela Przybylo, 2018-08-29 Ugliness or unsightliness is much more than a quality or property of an individual s appearance it has long functioned as a social category that demarcates access to social cultural and political spaces and capital The editors of and authors in this collection harness intersectional and interdisciplinary approaches in order to examine ugliness as a political category that is deployed to uphold established notions of worth and entitlement On the Politics of Ugliness identifies and challenges the harmful effects that labels and feelings of ugliness have on individuals and the socio political order It explores ugliness in relation to the intersectional processes of racialization colonization and settler colonialism gender making ableism heteronormativity and fatphobia On the Politics of Ugliness asks that we fight against visual injustice and imagine new ways of seeing

Peacebuilding with Women in Ukraine Maureen Flaherty, 2012-07-23 Twenty years post independence Ukraine remains split still floundering toward viable democracy Active participation in civic affairs required for democracy is unfamiliar for most Ukrainian citizens having internalized centuries of divisive oppression under a series of authoritarian regimes Democracy building and peace building require participant agency and voice rising out of oppression people often need support to speak about and transform their lived experiences Peacebuilding with Women in Ukraine Using Narrative to Envision a Common Future by Maureen P Flaherty explores the roles women s shared narrative dialogue and group visioning play in the support of personal empowerment and bridge building between diverse communities Despite participants initial beliefs that their regional counterparts shared little in common with them in the process of telling their personal life stories women were able to reflect upon their own values and strengths and with this rooting they were then able to reach out to others Rather than looking for differences participants sought ways to express a shared vision for an inclusive functional peace building future for themselves their families and Ukraine as a whole Peacebuilding with Women in Ukraine is a model for emancipatory social action and social change while the women s stories offer a window into the formative years and present day lives of eighteen women born and raised in the Soviet Union This study is a unique contribution to peace studies and to the history and building of a country that has most often had its history written for it

Rural Women's Health Beverly Leipert, Belinda Leach, Wilfreda Thurston, 2012-09-17 The well being of rural communities affects the well being of those who reside in towns and cities because of rural urban connections through food drinking water infectious disease extreme environmental events recreation and for many retirement residence In rural areas themselves women play a critical role in the health of their families and communities yet women's health is often marginalized or ignored There have been limited studies to date about rural women and health in Canada Filling an important gap in scholarship this collection identifies priority issues that must be addressed to ensure these women's well being and offers innovative theoretical and methodological ideas for improvement Rural Women's Health integrates perspectives from rural practitioners residents and scholars in a variety of fields including nursing sociology anthropology and geography to tackle issues relevant to diverse settings across the country As such it presents a national perspective on the nature of women's health while respecting internal and regional diversity as well as viewpoints from international scholarship

Social Work Treatment Francis J. Turner, 2017-03-23 First published in 1974 Social Work Treatment remains the most popular and trusted compendium of theories available to social work students and practitioners It explores the full range of theoretical approaches that drive social work treatment and knowledge development from psychoanalysis to crisis intervention A treasure trove of practice knowledge the text equips professionals with a broad array of theoretical approaches each of which shine a spotlight on a different aspect of the human condition Emphasizing the importance of a broad based theoretical approach to practice it helps readers avoid the pitfalls of becoming overly identified with a narrow focus that limits their understanding of clients and their contexts This sweeping overview of the field untangles the increasingly complex problems ideologies and value sets that define contemporary social work practice The result is an essential A to Z reference that charts the full range of theoretical approaches available to social workers regardless of their setting or specialty Advancing Critical Criminology Walter S. DeKeseredy, Barbara

Perry, 2006-06-29 Advancing Critical Criminology constitutes a timely addition to the growing body of knowledge on critical criminology scholarship DeKeseredy and Perry have assembled a volume that provides scholars with an in depth review of the extant literature on several major branches of criminology as well as examples of how critical criminologists apply their theoretical perspectives to substantive topics such as drugs interpersonal violence and rural crime Accordingly this work is divided into two main sections overviews of theories and applications Each chapter provides a summary of work in a specific area along with suggestions for moving the field forward This reader is unique in its choice of topics which have often been overlooked in the past An expert collection of international scholars Advancing Critical Criminology is certain to stimulate lively debates and generate further critical social scientific work in this field Crossing the Barriers : A Study of

Shashi Deshpande's Fiction Dr. Sunita Goyal, 2021-11-25 About the book The book is a compact and authoritative study of the female characters in Deshpande's novels from psychoanalytical point of view using mainly Karen Horney's theory of neurosis and the theories of a few other Western feminist theorists and feminist psychoanalysts such as Carol Gilligan Virginia Woolf Nancy Chodorow Sandra Gilbert and Susan Gubar Juliet Mitchell Luce Irigaray Helene Cixous and Julia Kristeva These theories attempt to trace the causes of conflicts and neuroses in women their coping strategies their self analyses and their journey towards reconciliation when they start articulating their individual urge and asserting their selves not only as daughters wives and mothers but also as autonomous and self actualized women Thorough in content stimulating in approach here is an invaluable companion to Deshpande's texts Introducing Gender and Women's Studies Diane

Richardson, Victoria Robinson, 2020-04-22 At a time where after decades of progress in gender and sexual rights people in many parts of the world are facing new forms of resistance and opposition to gender equality this timely publication confirms the continuing importance and relevance of gender and women's studies The fifth edition of this best selling textbook provides a comprehensive overview of key issues and debates in gender and feminist theory With fully revised chapters written by specialists across a range of core topics including sexuality race bodies family masculinity methodologies and migration this clearly written but rigorous collection examines contemporary debates and provides helpful examples and questions to consider Furthermore it continues to reflect the shift from women's studies to gender studies incorporating coverage of masculinity throughout as well as discussing live debates such as around global activism transgender rights and the environment It continues to be an indispensable resource for students academics and anyone interested in this lively field New to this Edition A new chapter on gender and migration Expanded discussion of transgender rights as well as masculinity studies Brings seven new contributors to the collection with newly authored chapters on Gender and Environment Gender and Education Gender and Sexuality and Gender and Race Fully revised and updated with new material and new case examples Greater attention to intersectional approaches and international reach

Case Conceptualization and Treatment Planning Pearl S. Berman, 2014-11-19 Using compelling client interviews and skill building exercises this practical book shows students how to tailor clinical work to the specific background of a client using any theoretical perspective Thoroughly revised and expanded the Third Edition of Case Conceptualization and Treatment Planning by Pearl S Berman adds two new theoretical orientations cultural therapy and the cognitive behavioral model and includes exercises for expanding student self awareness of personal biases

Gender and Environmental Education: Feminist and Other(ed) Perspectives Annette Gough, 2024-06-03 This timely book provides a starting point for critical analysis and discourse about the status of gendered perspectives in environmental education research Through bringing together selected writings of Annette Gough it documents the evolving discussions of gender in environmental education research since the mid 1990s from its origins in putting women on the agenda through to women s relationships with nature and ecofeminism as well as writings that engage with queer theory intersectionality assemblages new materialisms posthumanism and the more than human The book is both a collection of Annette Gough and her collaborators writings around these themes and her reflections on the transitions that have occurred in the field of environmental education related to gender since the late 1980s as well as her deliberations on future directions An important new addition to the World Library of Educationalists this book foregrounds women their environmental perspectives and feminist and other gendered research which have been marginalised for too long in environmental education

Encyclopedia of Social Problems Vincent N. Parrillo, 2008-05-22 Social problems affect everyone Because so many actual and potential problems confront us it is often difficult to decide which ones affect us most severely Is it the threat of death or injury during a terrorist attack Is it the threat caused by industrial pollution that may poison us or destroy our physical environment Or does quiet but viciously damaging gender age class racial or ethnic discrimination have the most far reaching effect Do the problems of cities affect us if we live in the suburbs Do poorer nations problems with overpopulation affect our quality of life The Encyclopedia of Social Problems offers an interdisciplinary perspective into many social issues that are a continuing concern in our lives whether we confront them on a personal local regional national or global level With more than 600 entries these two volumes cover all of the major theories approaches and contemporary issues in social problems and also provide insight into how social conditions get defined as social problems and the ways different people and organizations view and try to solve them Key Features Provides as comprehensive an approach as possible to this multifaceted field by using experts and scholars from 19 disciplines anthropology biology business chemistry communications criminal justice demography economics education environmental studies geography health history languages political science psychology social work sociology and women s studies Presents a truly international effort with contributors from 17 countries Argentina Australia Canada England France Germany Greece Hong Kong India Ireland Italy Kenya New Zealand Romania Scotland Turkey and the United States Addresses social problems that are fairly new such as computer crimes and identity theft and others that are centuries old such as poverty and prostitution Examines social problems differently from place to place and from one era to another Explains the perspectives and foundations of various social theories and offers different lenses to view the same reality Key Themes Aging and the Life Course Community Culture and Change Crime and Deviance Economics and Work Education Family Gender Inequality and Sexual Orientation Health Housing and Urbanization Politics Power and War Population and Environment Poverty and Social Class Race and Ethnic Relations Social Movements Social Theory Substance Abuse Readers investigating virtually any social problem will find a rich treasure of information and insights in this reference work making it a must have resource for any academic library

Communicating Gender Diversity Victoria Pruin DeFrancisco,Victoria Leto DeFrancisco,Catherine Helen Palczewski,2007-06-21 The purpose behind Communicating Gender Diversity A Critical Approach is not to provide any final conclusions about communicating gender Because gender is a constantly evolving concept both in terms of individuals gender identity development and the larger culture s predominant notions of gender such absolute claims are not possible Instead the intent is to better equip readers with tools with which they can examine and make sense of the intersections of communication and gender The text covers the variety of ways in which communication of and about gender and sex enables and constrains people s intersectional identities The authors believe people are social actors and as such create meaning through their symbolic interactions Thus the book s emphasis is not on how gender influences communication but on how communication constitutes gender They also believe that people are capable of being self reflective about communication processes and creative in generating new ways to play with symbols

Sexual Cultures and the Construction of Adolescent Identities Janice Irvine, 1994-05-12 This rich collection of essays presents a new vision of adolescent sexuality shaped by a variety of social factors race and ethnicity gender sexual identity physical ability and cultural messages propagated in films books and within families The contributors consider the full range of cultural influences that form a teenager's sexual identity and argue that education must include more than its current overriding message of denial hinged on warnings of HIV and AIDS infection and teenage pregnancy. Examining the sexual experiences, feelings, and development of Asians, Latinos, African Americans, gay men and lesbians, and disabled women, this book provides a new understanding of adolescent sexuality that goes beyond the biological approach, all too often simplified as surging hormones. In the series Health, Society, and Policy, edited by Sheryl Ruzek and Irving Kenneth Zola.
