Y. Ho,Sang Bin Lee,2004-01-15 The essential premise of this book is that theory and practice are equally important in describing financial modeling In it the authors try to strike a balance in their discussions between theories that provide foundations for financial models and the institutional details that provide the context for applications of the models The book presents the financial models of stock and bond options exotic options investment grade and high yield bonds convertible bonds mortgage backed securities liabilities of financial institutions the business model and the corporate model It also describes the applications of the models to corporate finance Furthermore it relates the models to financial statements risk management for an enterprise and asset liability management with illiquid instruments The financial models are progressively presented from option pricing in the securities markets to firm valuation in corporate finance following a format to emphasize the three aspects of a model the set of assumptions the model specification and the model applications Generally financial modeling books segment the world of finance as investments financial institutions corporate finance and securities analysis and in so doing they rarely emphasize the relationships between the subjects This unique book successfully ties the thought processes and applications of the financial models together and describes them as one process that provides business solutions Created as a companion website to the book readers can visit www.thomasho.com to gain deeper understanding of the book's financial models Interested readers can build and test the models described in the book using Excel and they can submit their models to the site Readers can also use the site's forum to discuss the models and can browse server based models to gain insights into the applications of the models For those using the book in meetings or class settings the site provides Power Point descriptions of the chapters Students can use available question banks on the chapters for studying

The Economics of Financial Services in Emerging Markets Bhagirath Prakash Baria, 2022-12-06 Any enquiry into the nature performance role demerits growth efficiency or other aspects of financial services such as banking and insurance activities requires rigorous estimates of their economic output i.e. the economic contributions made by these firms as well as by the industries as a whole Accordingly this book condenses several theoretical methodological empirical and philosophical issues in conceptualizing measuring and empirically operationalizing the economic output of the banking and insurance industries The analytical focus is on both Global and Emerging Markets perspectives The book synthesizes applied and conceptual evidence to locate the chosen theme's analytical patterns consensus and disagreements The selected subject matter is studied within the firm level and aggregate settings bringing literature of varied scopes together Contributions from various international academics practitioners and policymakers further enrich the narrative The book concludes with data driven case studies that analyze the extent to which the critical performance parameters of the banking and insurance industries in the BRIICS economies including estimation of aggregate industry level partial factor productivities total factor productivity technical efficiency and returns to scale vary concerning alternate measures of their output The present work also provides a brief note on the inputs measurement dimension following which there is a discussion on the limitations future scope and conclusions This work will be valuable for researchers and policymakers undertaking performance analyses related to banking and insurance activities It shall provide them with the examination of a plethora of analytical options and related issues on the theory and praxis of output measurement all finely organized into one single volume

Debtor-creditor Relationships and Financial Reporting Wooseok Choi, 2004 Contemporary Studies in Social, Economic & Financial Analysis Julia Dobрева, The chapters included in this volume are composed of some selected contributions from the 8th International Conference of Political Economy ICOPEC 2017 held in Belgrade on June 28-30 2017 with the main theme of Institutions National Identity Power and Governance in the 21st Century All chapters are peer reviewed by both the editors and independent scholars from the fields relevant to the manuscript's subject area The purpose of the volume is to provide and enhance our understanding of the recent trends in the social economic and financial analysis. Therefore this volume includes chapters that focus on the importance of these three disciplines of social sciences which interact heavily with almost every other social science as well as the normative sciences. In this sense this volume aims at providing a contemporary update to the literature from various different perspectives and tries to contribute to our knowledge in an effective manner. The chapters do not only present analysis of certain topics but also help to build the mindset for further studies that would be helpful in looking for answers to some of the remaining questions in these three crucial social sciences disciplines. Hence we are glad to put together a volume that would be useful to a large audience rather than just the technical experts.

Contemporary Issues in Behavioral Finance Simon Grima, Ercan Özen, Hakan Boz, Jonathan Spiteri, Eleftherios I. Thalassinou, 2019-07-04 This special edition of Contemporary Studies in Economic and Financial Analysis offers seventeen chapters from invited participants in the International Applied Social Science Congress held in Turkey between the 19th and 21st April 2018. Comprehensive Dissertation Index, 1989 Investments Andreas Grüner, Dominic

Gutknecht, 2022-09-06 Dieses Buch bietet einen vertieften Einblick in die Vermögensverwaltung, das Portfoliomanagement und die alternativen Kapitalanlagen und verbindet die Ausführungen mit den derzeit zentralen Themen der digitalen Transformation und des nachhaltigen Investierens. Als Ausgangspunkt erörtert es die klassische Vermögensverwaltung und moderne Portfoliotheorie mit den dazugehörigen Aspekten wie Anlagezielen, Klassen, Fonds, Rendite, Risiko, Diversifikation, Markteffizienz, Faktorenmodellen und Investitionsansätzen und beschreibt anschließend die durch das wachsende digitale Angebot sowie verstärkte Nachhaltigkeitsbewusstsein induzierten Veränderungen. So wird das Robo-Advisory und weitere FinTechs vorgestellt und der Einbezug von künstlicher Intelligenz sowie Nachhaltigkeitsaspekten, ESG-Kriterien ins Portfoliomanagement diskutiert. Ferner behandelt das Buch alternative Anlageklassen wie Hedgefonds oder Private Equity und beleuchtet aufstrebende alternative Anlageformen wie das Impact Investing, Infrastrukturanlagen und Kryptowährungen sowie digitale Entwicklungen wie das Peer-to-Peer Lending und Private Equity Crowdfunding.

African Development Finance and Business Finance Policy Atsede Woldie, Victor Murinde, 2014-05-01 Financial plans that stimulate growth and eliminate poverty in developing African countries. African Developmental Finance and Business Finance Policy presents theoretical, conceptual and empirical articles that provide invaluable insights into successful business techniques and strategies for the African business arena, the last great frontier of international business expansion. Researchers and practitioners in the field of developmental finance discuss the design and implementation of financial policies for pro-poor growth and poverty alleviation in developing countries including Kenya, Zambia, Nigeria, Mauritius and Zimbabwe. The book focuses on banking, business finance and investment, detailing strategies for coping with a small financial system, bank licensing policies, corrective action rules, quality of banking services and the revitalization of the African stock exchange. African Developmental Finance and Business Finance Policy features papers presented on key policy issues addressed at the April 2001 international conference of the Institute for Developmental Policy and Management at the University of Manchester in England Topics addressed include financial regulation interest rates bank ownership regulatory forbearance emerging stock markets determinants of capital structure financial reform and much more Targeted to policymakers in government and international agencies academics consultants and executives African Developmental Finance and Business Finance Policy is an essential resource for advancing and communicating research on developmental policy in developing countries
