Johnson, 2013-08-28 Urban God Talk Constructing a Hip Hop Spirituality edited by Andre Johnson is a collection of essays that examine the religious and spiritual in hip hop The contributors argue that the prevailing narrative that hip hop offers nothing in the way of religion and spirituality is false From its beginning hip hop has had a profound spirituality and advocates religious views and while not orthodox or systemic nevertheless many in traditional orthodox religions would find the theological and spiritual underpinnings in hip hop comforting empowering and liberating In addition this volume demonstrates how scholars in different disciplines approach the study of hip hop religion and spirituality Whether it is a close reading of a hip hop text ethnography a critical studies approach or even a mixed method approach this study is a pedagogical tool for students and scholars in various disciplines to use and appropriate for their own research and understanding Urban God Talk will inspire not only scholars to further their research but will also encourage publishers to print more in this field The contributors to this in depth study show how this subject is an underrepresented area within hip hop studies and that the field is broad enough for numerous monographs edited works and journal publications in the future modernities Muslim Subjectivities in Global Modernity discusses the role of religion in the modern world The case studies all provide examples illustrating the ambition to understand how Islamic traditions have contributed to the construction of practices and expressions of modern Muslim selfhoods In doing so they underpin Eisenstadt s argument that religious traditions can play a pivotal role in the construction of historically different interpretations of modernity At the same time however they point to a void in Eisenstadt s approach that does not problematize the multiplicity of forms in which this role of religious traditions plays out historically Consequently the authors of the present volume focus on the multiple modernities within Islam which Eisenstadt s theory hardly takes into account Contributors are Philipp Bruckmayr Neslihan Kevser Cevik Dietrich Jung Jakob Kraus Mex J rgensen Kamaludeen Nasir Zacharias Pieri Mark Sedgwick Kirstine Sinclair Fabio Vicini and Ahmed al Zalaf be the poet creator of its own form of quasi religion This is a unique look at the religious workings and implications of underground rap and hip hop As such it will be of keen interest to scholars of Religious Studies Hip Hop Studies and Process Philosophy and Theology Introduction to New and Alternative Religions in America William M.
