NeuroAuthority Brian Ainsley Horn, 2017-01-11 What is NeuroAuthority anyway At a high level it s the combination of neuroscience and authority marketing Neuromarketing is a new field of marketing research that studies consumers sensorimotor cognitive and affective response to marketing stimuli The technology is based on a model whereby the major thinking part of human activity over 90% including emotion takes place in the subconscious area that is below the levels of controlled awareness Authority marketing helps entrepreneurs leverage their knowledge to gain authority status in their industry This authority status then allows them to dramatically amplify their message and convert their new audience into higher paying customers In other words it s the process for positioning yourself as an authority or even a celebrity in your marketplace NeuroAuthority is the science of creating authority positioning in the subconscious area that is below the levels of controlled awareness It s using the proven tools of neuroscience to determine why we deem one person as an expert over another and then applying the research so you can use it to get more clients Traditional methods used by marketers won t trigger decisions at a subconscious level They just use whatever the shiny button is at the moment and hope that it will work Instead they should use a scientific approach to capture insights that predict why prospects will choose to follow respect and eventually buy from one person over another In his latest book Best Selling Author and Entrepreneur Brian Ainsley Horn reveals the concept of NeuroAuthority and uses case studies to back up his findings He also provides actionable applications of it for entrepreneurs small business owners and professionals The Secret Power of an Expert Val A.

on Napkins at the Sunshine Club includes a poet laureate of Georgia and of the United States and the poet who read at President Clinton's second inauguration. The oldest was born in 1905 and the two youngest in that ominous year of American history 1968. The Pulitzer winning Stanley Kunitz wrote a famous poem about the Indian Mounds. Miller Williams, father of the Grammy winning Lucinda Williams, lived in Macon in the early 1960s and became a friend of Flannery O'Connor. In the late 1970s soon after his Mercer days David Bottoms writes the poems for Shooting Rats at the Bibb County Dump and wins the Walt Whitman Award. Jud Mitcham wins the Devins Award for his first book Somewhere in Ecclesiastes and Seaborn Jones is doing his stint with Mister Rogers Neighborhood and would later connect in San Francisco to one of the last pure lines of surrealism in American expression. Several poets came out of Macon or arrived in Macon soon after. Between Mercer University and Macon State College the activity of poetry in Macon thrived. Adrienne Bond wrote her seminal poems and started up the Georgia Poetry Circuit. Judith Ortiz Cofer passed through Macon State at the brink of her position at the University of Georgia and in American letters as an important artistic spokesperson for women's experience. From Bruce Beasley and his hybrid poetics to Stephen Bluestone and his learned craft in the lyric poem, this book presents a selection for all students of Southern Literature, some of the best poems of other poets too, like Anya Silver, Amanda Pecor, Marjorie Becker, and the late Reginald Shepherd, who was as well known at his early death as any poet of his generation. Many of these poets studied with and knew the important poets of their time. The poems nevertheless speak for themselves. Adreßbuch der Stadt Zürich, 1859
