Planning and Conducting Management Audits and Studies

United States. Army. Management Engineering Training Activity,1980 Managing Local Governments Emanuele Padovani,David W. Young,2013-06-17 Local Government is an area where management skills are tested to the extreme With political considerations evident both locally and nationally managing resources can be complex and subject to change This book introduces new concepts and new ways of doing business that can greatly enhance the value of the services a local government provides to its citizens without putting a greater financial burden on taxpayers Padovani and Young present out of the box thinking based on solid research and experience to discuss topics such as Incorporating outcome indicators into strategic planning and budgeting Building a LG s budget with cost drivers Expanding the concept of enterprise funds Assessing and better managing the risk associated with outsourcing Using the concept of shadow pricing to compare public with private sector costs for services This book is a must read for students of public administration and management senior and middle managers in local governments around the world and citizens who are concerned with more effective management of their local government s programs and services A list of suggested extra case studies for each chapter and a description of the process to follow for ordering them may be obtained by sending an email to CrimsonCenter@cs.com You should request the document Case Study Suggestions for Managing Local Governments Leadership through Collaboration Ann S. Ferren,Wilbur W. Stanton,2004-02-28 This book is organized around 11 topics including the skills and personal qualities needed to provide effective academic leadership strengthening the infrastructure for academic affairs through strategic planning facilities planning and technology integration the importance of developing new resources and linking them to academic priorities academic entrepreneurship assessing academic quality and improving programs and services continuous improvement the central importance of investing in the faculty and improving academic decisions The chief academic officer must be the voice for the campus s academic purposes and a source of energy in supporting the activities of others Collaboration with colleagues across the institution is key to Ferren and Stanton s approach Their experiences in administrative roles ranging from department chair to provost have provided them with the ability to conduct and utilize many studies including budget adequacy modeling and salary equity studies These are issues for which the authors have been responsible for implementation and decision making allowing them to understand that collaborative processes and partnerships such as chairs with deans deans with vice presidents faculty with administrators or the CAO with members of the president s cabinet are as important as informed decision making Because CAOs are less likely to read what business officers and vice presidents for administration read this book attempts to integrate differing institutional perspectives and explain processes and criteria CAOs can tailor their decisions to institution circumstances and solve problems with greater insight
