

BALLADE POUR ADELINE

1

By PAUL DE SENNEVILLE
and OLIVER TOUSSAINT

Slowly

The musical score is written for piano in 4/4 time. It begins with a tempo marking of 'Slowly' and a dynamic marking of 'p' (piano). The first system shows the right hand playing a series of eighth notes and the left hand playing a simple bass line. The subsequent systems feature more complex textures, including chords, arpeggios, and melodic lines in both hands. The score is presented in five systems, each with a grand staff (treble and bass clef).

"Irony, Satire, Parody and the Grotesque in the Music of Shostakovich" Esti Sheinberg, 2017-07-05. The music of Shostakovich has been at the centre of interest of both the general public and dedicated scholars throughout the last twenty years. Most of the relevant literature, however, is of a biographical nature. The focus of this book is musical irony. It offers new methodologies for the semiotic analysis of music and inspects the ironical messages in Shostakovich's music independently of political and biographical bias. Its approach to music is interdisciplinary, comparing musical devices with the artistic principles and literary analyses of satire, irony, parody and the grotesque. Each one of these is firstly inspected and defined as a separate subject independent of music. The results of these inspections are subsequently applied to music, firstly in general and then more specifically to the music of Shostakovich. The composer's cultural and historical milieu are taken into account and where relevant inspected and analysed separately before their application to the music. The American Dream? Mercedes Cajada, 2004-12-06. Mercedes Cajada, born in Mozambique to a Portuguese cattle rancher and politician, married at nineteen and moved to South Africa to further her education. Her graduation year coincided with the independence of Mozambique and she stayed in South Africa at the advice of her father. Many years later, an American company offered her a job in the United States. She moved to America in search of a better life and a brighter future for her child. Ms Cajada is the mother of an intelligent child who also happens to be disabled. For Ms Cajada's daughter, the most simple task can become a lifetime achievement and a very fulfilling experience. A narrative of true facts, The American Dream is an expression of the author's feelings and her interpretation of life. Along the road, numerous people have crossed her path, some in a negative manner, others enriching her days. Every single person has left a strong imprint on the author's journey. Although fictitious names have been used, this is a true story about life, people and laws and the struggles of trying to stay ahead in a competitive, self-centered society. The American Dream chronicles Ms Cajada's search for equal rights and her attempt to belong.
