

ROMEO AND JULIET

(Love Theme)

from the Paramount Picture ROMEO AND JULIET

By NINO ROTA

Slowly, poignantly

The musical score is written for piano in 3/4 time, featuring a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It consists of five systems of staves. The first system begins with a piano (p) dynamic and includes a crescendo (cresc.) marking. The melody is characterized by long, flowing lines with many ties, creating a sense of continuous, slow movement. The accompaniment in the bass line provides a steady, harmonic foundation. The score concludes with a double bar line in the fifth system.

Nino Rota Richard Dyer,2019-07-25 Nino Rota is one of the most important composers in the history of cinema Both popular and prolific he wrote some of the most cherished and memorable of all film music for The Godfather Parts I and II The Leopard the Zeffirelli Shakespeares nearly all of Fellini and for more than 140 popular Italian movies Yet his music does not quite work in the way that we have come to assume music in film works it does not seek to draw us in and identify nor to overwhelm and excite us In itself in its pretty but reticent melodies its at once comic and touching rhythms and in its relation to what s on screen Rota s music is close and affectionate towards characters and events but still restrained not detached but ironically attached In this major new study of Rota s film career Richard Dyer gives a detailed account of Rota s aesthetic suggesting it offers a new approach to how we understand both film music and feeling and film more broadly He also provides a first full account in English of Rota s life and work linking it to notions of plagiarism and pastiche genre and convention irony and narrative Rota s practice is related to some of the major ways music is used in film including the motif musical reference underscoring and the difference between diegetic and non diegetic music revealing how Rota both conforms to and undermines standard conceptions In addition Dyer considers the issue of gay cultural production Rota s favourite genre comedy and his productive collaboration with the director Federico Fellini The Invisible Art of Film Music
