These real descriptions are the strongpoints of the book, which offers a perspective that cannot be only a company or the industry or the official media put down by its competitors. Historically, the book has provided the strongest picture of a counterbalancing the ruling strategic agency. There has been a similar movement in the last century. Every time, political economy is being gradually moving back to the center.

It is the director's top most responsibility for the company to make sure every action, every decision, every financial management, every expenditure is carefully done that the shareholders will be protected as well as the company. Hence the law gives protection with assets that normally the employees will be made to share the loss too.
