Dear [Mr./Ms. Last Name]:

This letter shall serve as a formal written reprimand and is to confirm in writing our discussion of [date] concerning your unacceptable [performance and/or conduct] and to establish my expectations which I have outlined in a Corrective Action Plan to be commenced immediately. Further, you are hereby warned of additional disciplinary action if your [performance and/or conduct] does not improve. I have developed this corrective measure to assist you in bringing your work as a [classification] to an acceptable standard as defined in your enclosed Employee Performance Appraisal.

During the past [time period], your supervisor has shared with you concern about your [performance of the functions of your position and/or unacceptable conduct]. While I want to emphasize that some of the deficiencies would not constitute unsatisfactory performance when viewed singularly, the cumulative effect demonstrates your inability or unwillingness to conform to expected standards of work. I believe it is necessary to initiate this Corrective Action Plan to cause you to understand that not only are your deficiencies unacceptable, but also that we are at a point where such [substandard performance and/or unacceptable conduct] can no longer be tolerated. [Insert language describing the consequences of the employee's actions, or inactions.]

You have been verbally counseled on numerous occasions concerning your work [performance and/or conduct] and your supervisor, [name], has spent many hours explaining appropriate [classification/job] protocol and process. Additionally, you have attended [insert number of training sessions employee has attended] training sessions; however, even with these attempts you have still not met performance expectations. Nonetheless, despite management intervention and assistance from your coworkers in actually performing your work [if applicable], you have consistently failed to meet reasonable expectations. It is my sincere hope that this corrective measure will cause you to meet the full complement of performance expectations.

So you may understand why I believe your [performance and/or conduct] to be unsatisfactory and how this prevents or hinders this agency from meeting its objectives, I offer the following representative occurrences that demonstrate your failure to meet the agency's work expectations: [Give SPECIFIC reasons for written warning – employee must be informed, with reasonable certainty and precision, of the cause of the action. Be sure to give examples of deficiencies i.e., who, what, when, where and how. Provide specific details including dates of previous disciplinary actions, unacceptable performance and/or conduct, management intervention, and the consequences to the agency/public.]

Armstrong's Handbook of Human Resource Management Practice

Michael Armstrong, Stephen Taylor, 2020-01-03 Armstrong's Handbook of Human Resource Management Practice is the bestselling and definitive resource for HRM students and professionals which helps readers to understand and implement HR in relation to the needs of the business. This book covers in depth all of the areas essential to the HR function such as employment law, employee relations, learning and development, performance management and reward, as well as the HR skills needed to ensure professional success including leadership, managing conflict, interviewing and using statistics. Illustrated throughout in full colour and with a range of pedagogical features to consolidate learning e.g. source review boxes, key learning points, summaries and case studies from international organizations such as IBM, HSBC and Johnson and Johnson, this fully updated 15th edition includes new chapters on the HRM role of line managers, evidence-based HRM, e-HRM and the gender pay gap, further case studies and updated content covering the latest research and developments. Armstrong's Handbook of Human Resource Management Practice is aligned with the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (CIPD) profession map and standards and is suited to both professionals and students of both undergraduate degrees and the CIPD's level 5 and 7 professional qualifications. Online supporting resources include comprehensive handbooks for lecturers and students, lecture slides, all figures and tables, toolkits and a literature review, glossary and bibliography.

Introducing Human Resource Management Margaret Foot, Caroline Hook, 2005 An excellent introduction to the subject. I have not found a comparable text at this level. Ron Fisher, Manchester Metropolitan University Up to date and pitched at exactly the right level, clear, interesting, well structured and easy to follow. Norma D Annunzio, Green Napier University Introducing Human Resource Management presents all the core HRM topics in a clear and lively style, exploring the latest developments in areas such as employment law and strategic HR, as well as current applications of HR practice in the workplace. Including a wide range of activities, exercises, case studies and real life examples, this book really involves the reader, helping you gain a good understanding of the theory and of how it applies in practice. This edition includes a thorough update on equality legislation. A new 'What next' feature to point you in the right direction if you want to deepen your knowledge of a topic. 'Did you know?' and 'Pause for thought' boxes to get you thinking. Review and self-check questions with answers to test your understanding. A wealth of extra activities, quizzes and multiple choice tests online to help you to check your knowledge and revise. This book is ideal for a first course in human resource or personnel management at undergraduate or professional level, including courses that lead to a CIPD qualification. Margaret Foot and Caroline Hook have extensive work experience in the field of HRM. They are both Senior Lecturers in Human Resource Management at Huddersfield University Business School and are founding members of the CIPD Huddersfield Geographical Group.
