Sebastian Buckup, 2012-05-20 Hailed by some as fundamental pillar of global governance and criticized by others as manifestation of top down globalism multi stakeholder partnerships have become the new mantra of policy makers around the globe However our understanding of what drives success and failure in these hybrid institutions remains scetchy and incomplete This book will introduce a production theory of partnering which describes how the contributions actors add to a partnership are translated into results The objective of this new perspective on collaboration is to make sense of the complex dynamics partnerships face and to derive fundamental propositions on how governance structures should be designed to make partnerships succeed
