Generalist Social Work Practice Janice Gasker, 2018-10-17 Generalist Social Work Practice provides students with the foundational skills and knowledge needed to serve clients across micro, mezzo, and macro areas of practice. Author Janice Gasker brings a focus on self reflection as the first stage in the planned change process and writes with the perspective that we consider work at all levels of practice simultaneously rather than in isolation. In accordance with the 2015 Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards (EPAS) set forth by the Council of Social Work Education (CSWE), the planned change process is presented as dynamic and interactive, providing students with a clear understanding of how each stage of the planned change process can be utilized at any point when serving a client system. The text spotlights the distinctive characteristics of the worker, their values, attitudes, and experiences that may influence client interaction. The text also includes case studies, collaborative learning exercises, and critical thinking questions to help students apply concepts to practice.

Starting Out Right Si Millican, 2012-08-09 Starting Out Right: Beginning Band Pedagogy is the only complete resource for organizing, planning, and teaching beginning woodwind, brass, and percussion students. The book covers every aspect of teaching beginning band students from the first sounds on the instruments through the first full band performances. It is the only comprehensive reference that offers step by step guidelines for teaching each beginning band instrument as well as organizing and running a successful beginning band program. Based on the public school teaching experience of the author, the book is designed for use in undergraduate methods and pedagogy classes as well as for clinics and workshops at the undergraduate and graduate levels. This book is also designed to be a reference for the many novice teachers who lead beginning bands or those teachers whose expertise is not in the band realm. While the focus of the book is on teaching beginning band, much of the book can be of use to band instructors at any grade level. The book is divided into several parts.

which cover the sound to sign to theory approach to teaching musical literacy child development as it relates to teaching music recruiting and retaining students developing fundamental sounds and skills on each woodwind brass and percussion instrument teaching students to read tonal and rhythmic music notation and selecting and rehearsing beginning band solo ensemble and full band music The book also addresses curriculum design scheduling and staffing of band programs Ideas about managing student records inventory and equipment are also given special attention Written in a casual narrative style the book features real world examples of how the principles in the book might be applied to actual teaching situations Another special feature of the book is a set of early field experience application exercises Starting Out Right guides readers as they explore a comprehensive individual and ensemble approach to teaching each woodwind brass and percussion instrument
