

i will tell you, my daughter
of your worth
not your beauty
every day. (your beauty is a given. every being is born beautiful).

knowing your worth
can save your life.
raising you on beauty alone
you will be starved.
you will be raw.
an easy stomach.
always in need of someone telling you how beautiful you are.

Antiracism Inc Felice Blake, 2019 Antiracism Inc considers new ways of struggling toward racial justice in a world that constantly steals and misuses radical ideas and practices The critical essays interviews and poetry collected here focus on people and methods that do not seek inclusion in the hierarchical order of gendered racial capitalism Rather they focus on aggrieved peoples who have always had to negotiate state violence and cultural erasure but who also work to build the worlds they envision These collectivities seek to transform social structures and establish a new social warrant guided by what W E B Du Bois called abolition democracy a way of being and thinking that privileges people mutual interdependence and ecological harmony over individualist self aggrandizement and profits Further these aggrieved collectivities reshape social relations away from the violence and alienation inherent to gendered racial capitalism and towards the well being of the commons Provided by publisher
