Curating Lived Islam in the Muslim World Iftikhar H. Malik, 2021-06-17 Beginning with the medieval period this book collates and reviews first hand scholarship on Muslims in the Middle East and South Asia as noted down by eminent British travellers sleuths and observers of lived Islam The book foregrounds the pre colonial and pre Orientalist phase and locates the multi disciplinarity of Britain's relationship with Muslims over the last millennium to demonstrate a multi layered interface Fully sensitive to a gender balance the book focuses on specially selected individuals and their transformative experiences while living and working among Muslims Examining the writings of male and female authors including Adelard Thomas Coryate Mary Montagu and Fanny Parkes the book analyses their understanding of Islam Moreover the author explores the works of a salient number of representative colonial British women to move away from the imperious wives stereotype and shed light on gender and Islam in Near East and South Asia by illustrating the status of women tribal hierarchies historic and architectural sites and regional politics Going beyond familiar views about colonialism travel writings and memsahibs without losing sight of the complex relations between Britain and Asian Muslims this book will be of interest to academics working on British history Imperial history the study of religions Shi'i Islam Islamic studies Gender and the Empire and South Asian Studies

The Technopolitics of Communication in Modern India Pragya Dhital, 2024-12-12 This book offers a groundbreaking account of the role of media technologies in Indian nationalism and democracy From the Brexit referendum in 2016 to the phenomenon of Trumpism there has been much speculation about the role played by new media in an apparent return of illiberal politics and primordial identities Dhital argues these developments could best be understood by not taking identity for granted as a static and exclusive form of affiliation She also emphasises how the technical and material are interwoven into human thought and action rather than acting upon them externally She accordingly focuses on the technopolitical means by which groups have been ventriloquised during critical periods in Indian political history across various media from newspapers and magazines to radio broadcasts speeches and online platforms Chapters cover prison writing produced during the emergency of 1975 77 regulation of public speech during the 2014 general election and the Citizenship Amendment Act protests of 2019 20 Through these case studies Dhital works towards an alternative more reflexive basis for popular representation one that does not sacralise the people and assume power in their name Islamophobia in European Cities Francesco Trupia,2025-03-31 The demise of socialism in Southeast Europe coincided with the breakout of wars and genocidal violence against local Muslim populations After being displaced and forced to migrate to different European countries those former socialist citizens quickly developed institutions of sociability and unobtrusively enacted postulates of solidarity This book brings a spotlight on the generations after born to Balkan Muslim families whose repatriation could not take place due to the continuous political instability and insecurity in their homelands It investigates the new modes of these second generations to respond to the current crisis of liberal democracy and rampant Islamophobia in their places of residence By relating spatial issues to broader religious and political questions this study shines a light on the civic engagement religious practices and political sensitivities of young Muslims with Balkan roots in Belgium Germany Italy and Poland The book will be of interest to academics researchers and policy makers working in the areas of Islamic Studies Migration Studies Anthropology of Religion and Memory Studies India, Empire, and First World War Culture Santanu Das,2018-09-13 Based on ten years of research Santanu Das s India Empire and First World War Culture Writings Images and Songs recovers the sensuous experience of combatants non combatants and civilians from undivided India in the 1914 1918 conflict and their socio cultural visual and literary worlds Around 1 5 million Indians were recruited of whom over a million served abroad Das draws on a variety of fresh unusual sources objects images rumours streetpamphlets letters diaries sound recordings folksongs testimonies poetry essays and fiction to produce the first cultural and literary history moving from recruitment tactics in villages through sepoy traces and feelings in battlefields hospitals and POW camps to post war reflections on Europe and empire Combining archival excavation in different countries across several continents with investigative readings of Gandhi Kipling Iqbal Naidu Nazrul Tagore and Anand this imaginative study opens up the worlds of sepoys and labourers men and women nationalists artists and intellectuals trying to make sense of home and the world in times of war Routledge Handbook of Autocratization in South Asia Sten Widmalm,2021-12-30 This handbook offers a comprehensive analysis of the processes and actors contributing to autocratization in South Asia. It provides an enhanced understanding of the interconnectedness of the different states in the region and how that may be related to autocratization. The book analyzes issues of state power, the support for political parties, questions relating to economic actors and sustainable economic development, the role of civil society, questions of equality and political culture, political mobilization, the role of education and the media, as well as topical issues such as the Covid pandemic, environmental issues, migration and military and international security. Structured in five sections, contributions by international experts describe and explain outcomes at the national level in India, Pakistan, Bangladesh, and Sri Lanka. The final section analyzes conditions for democracy and autocratization and how they are affected by the interplay of political forces at the international level in this region: India building an ethnic state, Pakistan the decline of civil liberties, Bangladesh towards one party rule, Sri Lanka the resilience of the ethnic state. How to comprehend autocratization in South Asia: three broad perspectives. This innovative handbook is the first to describe and to explain ongoing trends of autocratization in South Asia, demonstrating that drivers of political change also work across boundaries. It is an important reference work for students and researchers of South Asian Studies, Asian Studies, Area Studies, and Political Science. December 2021 Young Muslim Digest Syed Iqbal Zaheer, 2021-12-05. Among the major publications of IQRA Publications is the popular Islamic monthly in English, the Young Muslim Digest, arguably among the foremost in this type of publishing in India. This magazine is being brought out regularly by IQRA Publications since the past 36 years. The magazine carries authentic Islamic material for the Western educated and/or West-influenced youth presented in a creative manner while yet highlighting the beliefs of the earliest predecessors and an understanding of the Qur'an and Sunnah on the pattern of the great majority of Islamic scholars of the past and of those prominent down to the present age. In view of the authentic nature of its contents, the magazine has been awarded license for distribution in Saudi Arabia. Besides the regular monthly production of the Young Muslim Digest, IQRA Publications has quite a few other Islamic titles to its credit. Each one of these books offers authentic material and covers topics that are not normally covered by other publishers. It is perhaps for this reason that they are popular even outside the country. Malaysia, for instance, imports many of IQRA's titles regularly.

Viral Critique Hannah Richter, 2023-09-25. This book brings together papers that employ postfoundational theory to critically investigate the social, political, economic, and ecological dynamics and power structures that shaped Western democracies, non-Western societies, and international politics during the COVID-19 pandemic. The COVID-19 pandemic disrupted not only social relations and personal lives across the globe but also the landscape of postfoundational theory. Giorgio Agamben, one of its most prominent figures, attracted harsh criticism for his suggestion that the pandemic was nothing but an invented tool of state power. In the face of a collectively experienced emergency, it seemed tempting to forgo critical questioning in favour of taking action on a manifestly real viral threat Resisting this temptation this volume makes the case that COVID 19 has rendered postfoundational critique urgently necessary The chapters collected here use postfoundational theory to unpack the pandemic s global social event beyond dominant narratives of unprecedentedness exception and necessity The authors explore where the pandemic has actually altered political social and economic dynamics But they also highlight where divisions inequalities and expropriation continued unchanged or even reinforced throughout and after the COVID 19 event The chapters apply scrutinise and re work the writings of postfoundational thinkers from Jacques Derrida Roberto Esposito and Gilles Deleuze to Jasbir Puar to both offer a better understanding of the pandemic s social reality and to draw from it visions for a different post pandemic future Viral Critique will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of Philosophy Political Science Sociology Economics and Cultural Studies The chapters included in this book were originally published as a special issue of Distinktion Journal of Social Theory

Security of the China Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC) Khurram Siddiqui,2023-11-17 This book analyses the strategic and economic significance of the China Pakistan Economic Corridor CPEC with a particular focus on the region of Balochistan Given the history of multiple insurgencies that the Pakistani Military has confronted in Balochistan the book examines the region s intricate conflict ecosystem and security landscape which poses potential threats to the CPEC Structured chronologically the book traces the evolution of the Pakistani Army s counterinsurgency practices inherited in 1947 from the British Indian Army s culture of fighting small wars through to the contemporary counterinsurgency COIN adaptation in the war on terror and afterwards to the fifth round of the Balochistan insurgency The analysis centres on the development of counterinsurgency theory and practice by the Pakistani Army It empirically investigates the efficacy of the COIN strategy in Balochistan The author argues that the approach significantly changed after conceptualising the doctrine especially from 2016 onwards from butcher and bolt to the inclusion of critical components like political primacy affect based and focused use of force winning hearts and minds and rules of engagement As a result there was reduced violence and an increased number of insurgent surrenders This book concludes that the Pakistani Army has largely controlled the insurgency in Balochistan However simultaneously there is an urgent need to reduce tangible support to the insurgents through porous borders and implement an effective strategy to sever the nexus between the Islamic State of Khorasan ISKP and the Baloch insurgent organisations as well as the sectarian militant organisations in Balochistan province This is crucial to ending the insurgency and ensuring the security of CPEC A novel contribution to the study of counterinsurgency and the importance of CPEC to China s foreign policy and diplomacy as well as its effects on the conflict dynamics in Balochistan the book will be of interest to researchers studying War and Conflict Studies Terrorism Studies International Relations Security and Strategic Studies and South Asian and Chinese Studies

Roots, Routes and a New Awakening Ananta Kumar Giri,2021-03-01 This book seeks to find creative and transformative relationship among roots and routes and create a new dynamics of awakening so that we can overcome the problems of closed and xenophobic roots and rootless cosmopolitanism The book draws upon multiple philosophical and spiritual traditions of the world such as Siva Tantra Buddhist phenomenology and Peircean Semiotics and discusses the works of Ibn Arabi Thoreau Tolstoy Gandhi and Raimon Panikkar among others The book is transdisciplinary building on creative thinking from philosophy anthropology political studies and literature It is a unique contribution for forging a new relationship between roots and routes in our contemporary fragile and complex world      The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints Library of Congress, American Library Association. Committee on Resources of American Libraries. National Union Catalog Subcommittee, 1975      Fallacy of Militant Ideology Munir Masood Marath, 2021-09-05 This book highlights the conflict between jihadist militants and the West as essentially ideological in character It has serious implications internalized by Muslim societies with the boundaries of faith changed by the interplay of socio political variables Violence emerged in Muslim societies as a means of emancipation or identity when the state could not resolve the conflict situation Although the militants were influenced by socio political factors they have always looked to religion to justify their acts of violence This book exposing the fallacy of the narrative evolved by the militants offers a counter narrative It reinterprets the primary sources unravels the historical and socio political constructs unmasks the heroes and enemies challenges the dichotomies between theory and practice re establishes the boundaries between heresy and faith and attempts to transform the current ideological discourse This book will be of interest to students and scholars of the discourse between religion and security political Islam Islamic history jihad Middle Eastern studies and South Asian studies      Who is Allah? Bruce B. Lawrence, 2015-03-10 Engaging with the age old question of who is the God of Islam Bruce B Lawrence stakes out the historical nuance of Allah throughout the past 1500 years from the earliest mention of his name to his appropriate by cyberspace      Nodes of Translation Martin Christof-Füchsle, Razak Khan, 2024-01-29 The volume examines translation of key German texts into the modern Indian languages as well as translation from the vernacular languages of South Asia into German Our key concerns are shifting historical contexts concepts and translation practices Bringing an intellectual history dimension to translation studies we explore the history of translation translators and sites of translation The organization of the volume follows some key questions Which texts were being translated At what point or period in time did this happen What were the motivations behind these translations Topics covered range from thematic nodes or clusters e g translations of Economics texts and ideas into Urdu or the translation of Marx and Engels into Marathi to personal endeavours such as the first Hindi translation of Goethe's Faust done by Bholanath Sharma in 1939 Missionary as well as Marxist activist translation work from Malayalam Tamil and Telugu is included too On the other hand German translations of Tagore and Gandhi setting in shortly after 1912 are also examined Also discussed are political strategies of publication of translations from modern Indian languages guiding the output of publishing houses in the GDR after 1949 Further included are the translator's perspective and the contemporary translation and literary culture What happens through the process of linguistic translation in the realm of cultural translation What can a historical study of translation tell us about the history of Indo German intellectual entanglements in the long twentieth century The volume brings together multifaceted interdisciplinary research work from South Asian and German studies to answer some of these questions The Hindu Index ,2006 Teens in Pakistan J. M. Bedell,2009 Discusses the similarities and differences of teenagers in Pakistan In Their Own Words C. Christine Fair,2018-12-15 This path breaking volume reveals a little known aspect of how Lashkar e Tayyaba a jihadist terrorist group functions in Pakistan and beyond by translating and commenting upon a range of publications produced and disseminated by Dar ul Andlus the publishing wing of LeT Only a fraction of LeT s cadres ever see battle most of them are despatched on nation wide prozelytising dawa missions to convert Pakistanis to their particular interpretation of Islam in support of which LeT has developed a sophisticated propagandist literature This canon of Islamist texts is the most popular and potent weapon in LeT s arsenal and its scrutiny affords insights into how and who the group recruits LeT s justification for jihad its vision of itself in global and regional politics the enemies LeT identifies and the allies it cultivates and how and where it conducts its operations Particular attention is paid to the role that LeT assigns to women by examining those writings which heap extravagant praise upon the mothers of aspirant jihadis who bless their operations and martyrdom It is only by understanding LeT s domestic functions as set out in these texts that one can begin to appreciate why Pakistan so fiercely supports it despite mounting international pressure to disband the group The New York Times Index ,2008 National Union Catalog ,1980 Includes entries for maps and atlases National Union Catalog ,1981
