How's Your Faith? David Gregory, 2016-09-13 Join former NBC newsman and Meet the Press moderator David Gregory as he probes various religious traditions to better understand his own faith and answer life's most important questions: who do we want to be and what do we believe. While David was covering the White House, he had the unusual experience of being asked by President George W. Bush, "How's your faith, David?" His answer was just emerging. Raised by a Catholic mother and a Jewish dad, he had a strong sense of Jewish cultural and ethnic identity but no real belief until his marriage to a Protestant woman of strong faith inspired him to explore his spirituality for himself and his growing family. David's journey has taken him inside Christian mega churches and into the heart of Orthodox Judaism. He's gone deep into Bible study and asked tough questions of America's most thoughtful religious leaders, including evangelical preacher Joel Osteen and Cardinal Timothy Dolan, the Catholic Archbishop of New York. It has brought him back to his childhood where belief in God might have helped him through his mother's struggle with alcoholism and through a difficult period of public scrutiny and his departure from NBC News, which saw his faith tested like never before. David approaches his faith with the curiosity and dedication you would expect from a journalist accustomed to holding politicians and Presidents accountable. But he also comes as a seeker, one just discovering why spiritual journeys are always worthwhile.

Evolution of an Unorthodox Rabbi John Moscovitz, 2015-10-31. A most unorthodox rabbi revisits twenty-five turbulent years in Toronto's Reform Jewish community. John Moscovitz is an unlikely rabbi who rejected a religious life as a teenager and spent his formative years as a social activist under the wing of a radical professor. It is hard to say what path his life might have taken had not a spiritual awakening led him to devote his life to the service of the Jewish community. This set him on a path to becoming one of Toronto's most cherished and effective rabbis over the past twenty-five years. For the congregants of Holy Blossom Temple, Toronto's oldest Reform synagogue, those twenty-five years were a great blessing. In the sermons he has gathered here, Rabbi Moscovitz looks back at the temple and congregation he served for so long. A most unconventional rabbi, indeed, he charts the rapid shifts in thinking on issues including same-sex marriage, peace between Israelis and Palestinians, and gun control laws. Part memoir, part social history, this book is also a deep examination of a long personal and public journey into the centre of an evolving community of faith.

Approaching God John C. Merkle, 2009. Abraham Joshua Heschel (1907-72) is widely regarded as one of the most creative religious thinkers of the twentieth century, and John Merkle is well known as a leading guide to Heschel's thought. In accessible and engaging language, Merkle's Approaching God: The Way of Abraham Joshua Heschel introduces readers to Heschel's life and works in the service of God and to the very heart of his theological perspective. This book clearly explains Heschel's reasons for affirming the reality and revelation of God, what he recommends as ways of responding to God, and why he thinks it is important to accept religious diversity as the will of God. Deeply rooted in tradition, Heschel's message was in its day both timely and ahead of its time. This book shows just how relevant his message is for those seeking God and an enlightened perspective on God in the twenty-first century. John C. Merkle is professor of theology at the College of Saint Benedict and Saint John's University in Minnesota. His books include The Genesis of Faith: The Depth Theology of Abraham Joshua Heschel (Macmillan, 1985) and Faith Transformed.

Life is both beautiful and disappointing In Beautiful Disappointing Hopeful Drew Hyun explains how the Christian faith provides a lens through which we can understand the beautiful and disappointing world we live in while offering the kind of promising hope we long for Throughout history we have tried to make sense of the world that we inhabit and how we can navigate through the tension of all that is good and broken in this life Yet most of our attempts to avoid loss simply lead to greater anxiety an unresolved fear that we will eventually lose what we most love and need Weaving a rich tapestry of Christian tradition and personal illustrations Hyun offers Christianity as a true and compelling vision for life that faithfully points the way through loss to true beauty He presents three deep practices that can build lasting spiritual resilience and help you learn how to grow through life's losses and disappointments By exploring these contemplative spiritual practices Gratitude Grieving and Grace as a means of centering your life more fully into a holistic spirituality you can uncover meaningful responses to the full range of lived experiences that will lead you to a grounded yet transcendent hope

A Bell Curve Andrew Friend, 2011-06-07 From earliest times humanity has sought to understand its place and role in the world has sought for meaning Wherever human beings are to be found myth and extra historical record of who we are has always played a vital role in this regard Traditional religion by comparison has only emerged in the last 2 500 years This book summarizes the history of man's religious endeavors and shows how much of religion over time has anything but aided its followers in their journey through life Because traditional religion is failing to meet our spiritual needs people are moving from heteronomy to autonomy as they assume responsibility for their own journeys A continuing survey begun at the turn of the century reveals that 36 percent of the participants believe that the American dream is achieved through spiritual fulfillment A never ending stream of articles in a variety of journals bear witness to this trend as well as to the many new means now exercised in order to nourish one's spirituality The relevance of myth has been renewed while that of religion is in decline in the West Martin Luther's
