Zebratown The True Story Of A Black Ex Con And A White Single Mother In Small Town America:

Zebratown Greg Donaldson, 2010-08-24 Eight years in the making this edgy in depth account follows a black felon's attempt to find a new life for himself with a white woman in a small town neighborhood where as the book's title implies such relationships are common A remarkably intense read Zebratown reveals a rhythm of life spiked with violence betrayal sex and the emotional dangers created by passionate love Greg Donaldson's Zebratown follows the life of Kevin Davis an ex con from Brownsville Brooklyn who after his release from prison moves to Elmira New York and takes up with Karen a young woman with a six year old daughter Kevin is seemingly the embodiment of hip hop gangsterism a heavily muscled feared thug who has beaten a murder rap And yet as Donaldson's stunning reportage reveals Kevin has survived on the streets and in prison with a sharp intelligence and a rigid code of practical morality and physical fitness while yearning to make a better life for himself and be a better man Month by month and year by year Donaldson follows Kevin and Karen's attempt to make a home together a quest made harder by Kevin's difficulty finding legal employment The dangerous lures of the street remain for him both in New York City and in Zebratown and he is not always successful at avoiding them Meanwhile as Kevin and Karen struggle the reader comes to care for them even as they act in ways that society may not condone Theirs is a complex story with many moments of drama suffering desire and revelation a story that is frequently astonishing and unforgettable to the end Like Adrian Nicole LeBlanc in Random Family Donaldson explores a largely hidden world such immersion journalism is difficult to achieve but uniquely powerful to read In addition to spending long periods with Kevin and Karen Donaldson interviews policemen judges family members and others in Kevin and Karen's orbit providing a remarkably panoramic account of their lives Relationships between white women and black men have long been a hot issue in American culture Even years after the 2008 presidential election when society has in some ways seemingly moved on to a postracial perspective people still have a lot to say about interracial relationships Zebratown takes us into the heart of one and offers the paradoxical truth that while race is rarely not an issue in such relationships in the end what transpires between a couple is intensely individual Meanwhile the difficulty that ex cons have successfully reentering society is an ongoing problem for them their families and the communities where they live Zebratown makes this struggle real as Kevin Davis confronts not only his criminal record and his poor formal education but the cruelties of the postindustrial economy Both his and Karen's stories resonate powerfully with twenty first century American reality and in telling them Greg Donaldson confirms his position as one of the most intrepid journalists at work today Tonight We Bombed the U.S. Capitol William Rosenau, 2020-01-07 A deeply researched and well written account of Peter Bergen author of United States of Jihad M19 the first and only domestic terrorist group founded and led by women as they waged a violent war against racism sexism and imperialism in Ronald Reagan's America 1981 Ronald Reagan declared that it is morning in America but a small band of well educated women were planning to combat the status quo at any cost Having spent their entire adult lives embroiled in political struggles Vietnam War protests Hispanic Native American and Black liberation and more these women had determined that it was time for a final stand They might not be able to overthrow the government but they could certainly disrupt it Together they formed the May 19th Communist Organization or M19 a name derived from the birthday shared by Malcolm X and Ho Chi Minh two of their revolutionary idols Together these six women carried out some of the most shocking operations in the history of domestic terrorism from prison breakouts and murderous armed robberies to a bombing campaign that wreaked havoc on the nation's capital its military installations and New York City For the first time the full fascinating and terrifying story of M19 is explored by Cold War historian and counterterrorism expert William Rosenau in this gripping account of this hitherto forgotten terrorist campaign Bruce Hoffman author of Inside Terrorism Three decades may have passed since these women fought what they saw as an essential battle for self determination and dignity but we're still struggling to decipher which side of history their actions fall on and what we should learn from their motivations
