Liberating Eschatology Letty M. Russell, Margaret A. Farley, Serene Jones, 1999-01-01 This volume addresses a theme long essential to feminist and liberationist theology in what can we hope and what role should hope play in our actions and our lives It provides a constructive set of proposals and fills a crucial gap in theological resources as well known contributors address the theme from their different contexts and fields

The Afro-Latino Memoir Trent Masiki, 2023-08-29 Despite their literary and cultural significance Afro Latino memoirs have been marginalized in both Latino and African American studies Trent Masiki remedies this problem by bringing critical attention to the understudied African American influences in Afro Latino memoirs published after the advent of the Black Arts movement Masiki argues that these memoirs expand on the meaning of racial identity for both Latinos and African Americans Using interpretive strategies and historical methods from literary and cultural studies Masiki shows how Afro Latino memoir writers often turn to the African American experience as a model for articulating their Afro Latinidad African American literary production expressive culture political ideology and religiosity shaped Afro Latino subjectivity more profoundly than typically imagined between the post war and post soul eras Masiki recovers this neglected history by exploring how and why Black nationalism shaped Afro Latinidad in the United States This book opens the border between the canons of Latino and African American literature encouraging greater intercultural solidarities between Latinos and African Americans in the era of Black Lives Matter
