Dear Sonia

I am glad to write my first letter. My name is Lamia. I am from London but I live with my grandmother in Chi Chester. I am a pretty teenager of medium height with a fair complexion. I study at King Charles' school. Every morning, I go to school on foot because it is not far from home. After school, I usually check my e-mail. By the way, I have just received a letter from an English young girl of 16. She is looking for pen friends. Her name is Linda. She is tall but rather slim. Linda says that she has many hobbies including painting and reading books. She is interested in other people's culture and customs.

Linda and her friends generally spend their leisure time in the youth club in Manchester. They often rehearse plays they have written. Linda's family is quite large. She has three sisters and two brothers. Her father is a manager in a small chocolate factory and her mother is a secretary in the same factory. The Olivers are a well-known family. They regularly give parties and invite many people. So Linda and her sisters have much to do on such occasions. Email Linda if you want to be her pen friend.

Please answer me soon and tell me about you and your family.

Yours faithfully
Lamia
