Border Politics in Novels by European Women in Translation Pam

Morris,2024-09-19 Is conflict inherent to the politics of borders Recent global events erupting from national religious class racial and gender boundaries would suggest it is From the inhumanity of post Brexit British immigration policy to the violent suppression of women's freedom in Iran to Russia's territorial invasion of Ukraine and most immediately to the violent conflagration engulfing Palestine border hostilities seem everywhere characterised by fearful and toxic intolerance of what is deemed other This book examines the writing of award winning European novelists to suggest an alternative perspective one that redresses time sanctioned hierarchies of mind over body of ideals over physical reality It explores novelistic representations of power war sacrifice heroism national history and identity all issues more conventionally viewed within a male consensus The fiction offers a cultural and imaginative response to border conflicts of all kinds ethical bodily religious and geographical often drawing upon the writers own personal experience of threatening divisions Examining works by Virginia Woolf Jenny Erpenbeck Olga Tokarczuk Herta and Paulina Aikin Anna Burns Chika Unigwe Maylis de Lencquesaw Magda Szabó Elena Ferranti Alki Zei Elif Shafak and Oksana Zabuzhko it uses an integrated interdisciplinary approach to combine literary readings with detailed historical and political understanding of cultural context Coming from many different cultures and histories these writers speak a common condemnation of all hierarchies of worth and of exceptionalist identities whether sanctified by religion nature or tradition Morris shows how their stories read here in translation also articulate a strikingly unified vision of a radical ecological understanding of human relations based on physical continuity and co existence rather than borders dividing an idealised us from a denigrated them

Dascal,2011-12-14 Episodes from a History of Undoing The Heritage of Female Subversiveness paraphrasing Rada Khumar's seminal study of the development of the feminist movements in India The History of Doing is a volume purporting to illustrate women's resistance to patriarchal colonization through societal norms and hegemonic discourses. Whether mythical amazons, mediaeval authors or regular cannoneesses, Renaissance monarchs, activists and academics, philosophers or politicians, such women have become trail blazers in their fields attempting to forge new epistemes through strategies of undoing, refashioning, rewriting or revising political and cultural concepts, practices and institutions. The volume comprises 11 essays authored by academics from Brazil, Hungary, Poland, Romania, Turkey and the USA and addresses a wide readership of academics, students, historians, NGO activists etc. The volume is prefaced by Professor Margaret R. Higonnet from Connecticut University.

Goodbye, Eastern Europe Jacob Mikanowski, 2024-07-23. In light of Russia's aggressive 2022 invasion of Ukraine, Goodbye Eastern Europe is a crucial elucidative read, a sweeping epic chronicling a thousand years of strife, war and bloodshed from pre-Christianity to the fall of Communism, illuminating the remarkable cultural significance and richness of a place perpetually lost to the margins of history. Eastern Europe has gone out of fashion since the fall of the Soviet Union. Ask someone today and they might tell you that Estonia is in the Baltics or Scandinavia, that Slovakia is in Central Europe and that Croatia is in the eastern Adriatic or the Balkans. In fact, Eastern Europe is a place that barely exists at all except in cultural memory. Yet it remains a powerful marker of identity for many with a fragmented and wide-ranging history defined by texts, myths and memories of centuries of hardship and suffering. Goodbye Eastern Europe is a masterful narrative about a place that has survived being forgotten. Beginning with long lost accounts of early pagan life, Mikanowski offers a kaleidoscopic tour of the various peoples who made Eastern Europe their home over the centuries, including the Roma, Jews and Muslims, the great kingdoms of the medieval period, the rise and fall of the Ottoman, Habsburg and Russian empires, the dawn of the modern era, the ravages of fascism and Communism, the birth of the modern nation state and beyond. A student of literature, history and the ghosts of his own family's past, Mikanowski paints a magisterial portrait of a place united by diversity and eclecticism and of people with the shared story of being the dominated rather than the dominating. The result is a loving and ebullient celebration of the distinctive and vibrant cultures that stubbornly persisted at the margins of Western Europe and Russia and a powerful corrective that re-centers not only our understanding of how the modern Western world took shape but also the ways in which Eastern Europe has evolved throughout history to become what it is today.

Social Practices Chris Kraus, 2018-10-30. Essays on and around art and art practices by the author of I Love Dick. A border isn't a metaphor. Knowing each other for over a decade makes us witnesses to each other's lives. My escape is his prison. We meet in a bar and smoke Marlboros from Social Practices. Mixing biography, autobiography, fiction, criticism and conversations among friends with Social Practices, Chris Kraus continues the anthropological exploration of artistic lives and the art world begun in 2004 with Video Green. Los Angeles Art and the Triumph of Nothingness. Social Practices includes writings from and around the legendary Chance Event Three Days in the Desert with Jean Baudrillard 1996 and Radical Localism, an exhibition of art and media from Puerto Nuevo's Mexicali Rose that Kraus co-organized with Marco Vera and Richard Birkett in 2012. Attuned to the odd and the anomalous Kraus profiles Elias Fontes an Imperial Valley hay merchant who has become an important collector of contemporary Mexican art and chronicles the demise of a rural convenience store in northern Minnesota She considers the work of such major contemporary artists as Jason Rhoades Channa Horowitz Simon Denny Yayoi Kusama Henry Taylor Julie Becker Ryan McGinley and Leigh Ledare Although Kraus casts a skeptical eye at the genre that s come to be known as social practice her book is less a critique than a proposition as to how art might be read through desire and circumstance delirium gossip coincidence and revenge All art she implies is a social practice

A History of European Literature Walter Cohen, 2017 Walter Cohen argues that the history of European literature and each of its standard periods can be illuminated by comparative consideration of the different literary languages within Europe and by the ties of European literature to world literature World literature is marked by recurrent systematic features outcomes of the way that language and literature are at once the products of major change and its agents Cohen tracks these features from ancient times to the present distinguishing five main overlapping stages Within that framework he shows that European literature s ongoing internal and external relationships are most visible at the level of form rather than of thematic statement or mimetic representation European literature emerges from world literature before the birth of Europe during antiquity whose Classical languages are the heirs to the complex heritage of Afro Eurasia This legacy is later transmitted by Latin to the various vernaculars The uniqueness of the process lies in the gradual displacement of the learned language by the vernacular long dominated by Romance literatures That development subsequently informs the second crucial differentiating dimension of European literature the multicontinental expansion of its languages and characteristic genres especially the novel beginning in the Renaissance This expansion ultimately results in the reintegration of European literature into world literature and thus in the creation of today s global literary system The distinctiveness of European literature is to be found in these interrelated trajectories
