Zambreno, 2023-11-21 Tone is a collaborative study of literary tone a notoriously challenging and slippery topic for criticism Both granular and global infusing a text with feeling tone is so difficult to pin down that responses to it often take the vague form of I know it when I see it In Tone a cooperative authorial voice under the name of the Committee to Investigate Atmosphere begins from the premise that tone is relational belonging to shared experience rather than a single author and should be approached through a communal practice In partnership the Committee explores the atmospheres emanating from texts by Nella Larsen W G Sebald Heike Geissler Hiroko Oyamada Mieko Kanai Bhanu Kapil Franz Kafka Renee Gladman and others attending to the chafing of political irritation the hunger of precarious and temporary work and the lonely delights of urban and suburban walks This study treats a variety of questions How is tone filtered through translation Can a text hold the feelings that pass between humans and animals What can attention to literary tone reveal about shared spaces such as factories universities and streets and the clashes and connections that happen there Searching and conversational Tone seeks immersion in literary affect to convey the experience of reading and living together Global Curriculum

Caserta, 2022-10-31 Narratives of Mediterranean Space Literature and Art across Land and Sea presents a comparative analysis of contemporary literary and visual narratives of movement and migration produced in Italian Arabic and French It analyzes how these works create a dialogue across the Mediterranean Sea By paying attention to the multiple ways in which the Mediterranean is being narrated by contemporary writers and artists Silvia Caserta aims to propose a reconceptualization of the Mediterranean as a polyphonic space of movement and resistance The Mediterranean space that emerges from this study is a space that by virtue of the instability and porosity of its geographical and cultural borders is able to overcome normative dichotomies between north and south east and west local and global This book proposes the Mediterranean is a fruitful area from which to investigate the wider contradictions of the contemporary global world while avoiding the traps of Mediterraneanism. Humans, Animals and Biopolitics Kristin Asdal, Tone Druglito, Steve Hinchliffe, 2016-07-01 Human animal co-existence is central to a politics of life: how we order societies and to debates about who we humans think we are. In other words, our ways of understanding and ordering human animal relations have economic and political implications and affect peoples' everyday lives. By bringing together historically oriented approaches and contemporary ethnographies which engage with science and technology studies (STS), this book reflects the multi-sited, multi-species, multi-logic and multiple ways in which lives are and have been assembled, disassembled, practised and possibly policed and politicized. Instead of asking only how control and knowledge are and have been extended over life, the chapters in this book also look at what happens when control fails at practices which defy orders, escape detection, fail to produce or only loosely hang together. In doing so, the book problematizes and extends the Foucauldian notion of biopolitics that has been such a central analytical concept in studies of human animal relations and provides a unique resource of cases and theoretical refinements regarding the ways in which we live together with more than human others.

The Scarecrow Ibrahim al-Koni, 2015-08-01 The Scarecrow is the final volume of Ibrahim al-Koni's Oasis trilogy which chronicles the founding, flourishing and decline of a Saharan oasis. Fittingly, this continuation of a tale of greed and corruption opens with a meeting of the conspirators who assassinated the community's leader at the end of the previous novel, The Puppet. They punished him for opposing the use of gold in business transactions, a symptom of a critical break with their nomadic past, and now they must search for a leader who shares their fetishistic love of gold. A desert retreat inspires the group to select a leader at random, but their choice, it appears, is not entirely human. This interloper from the spirit world proves a self-righteous despot whose intolerance of humanity presages disaster for an oasis besieged by an international alliance. Though al-Koni has repeatedly stressed that he is not a political author, readers may see parallels not only to a former Libyan ruler but to other tyrants past and present who appear as hollow as a scarecrow.

Sufism in the Contemporary Arabic Novel Ziad Elmarsafy, 2014-08-20 This book will present close readings of three contemporary Arabic novelists: an Egyptian, Gamal Al Ghitany; an Algerian, Taher Ouettar; and a Tuareg, Ibrahim al-Koni, who have all turned to Sufism as a literary strategy aimed at negotiating i

A Sleepless Eye Ibrahim al-Koni, 2014-05-27 The Libyan landscape is one of the most diverse and breathtaking, replete with barren deserts, vast ocean coasts and a stunning display of earth's elements. Al-Koni, an award-winning and critically acclaimed Arabic writer, reflects on this fragile environment and the increasing threats to its existence in A Sleepless Eye, a collection of the poet's desert wisdom. He highlights the relationships between humans and Libya's natural features, grouping them by theme: nature, desert, water, sea, wind, rock, trees, and fire. Each theme contains a set of aphorisms that deliver thoughtful perspectives on
