Too often managers who face downsizing or reorganization must conduct program evaluations without having any background or formal training. This comprehensive resource is a straightforward guide to the concepts and methods of evaluation. It explains each component of the evaluation design, first detailing principles and theories and then showing how to apply them in real life situations. Written for any program type or setting, The ABCs of Evaluation shows how to select the evaluation team and how to deal with multiple goals and objectives, including those of the organization, the staff, and the client. Authors John Boulmetis and Phyllis Dutwin describe different evaluation models, illustrate the circumstances under which each model can be used, and offer tips on identifying data sources and collecting the data itself. They also provide a sample report that focuses on the needs of program stakeholders. Throughout the book, there are charts, graphs, models, and lists to help organize, extend, and facilitate the understanding of each evaluation concept. Jeff Herman's Guide to Book Publishers, Editors and Literary Agents 2006 Jeff Herman, 2005-10. Now updated for 2008, this annual edition of the classic bestselling directory provides everything working writers need to find the most receptive publishers, editors, and agents for their work. Education, Innovation and Economic Society Development Norbert Grünwald, 2015-06-03. The ICEBE conference held in Shijiazhuang is the seventh in a series of annual conferences on engineering and business education, and ICIE is the 5th international conference that runs every two years on innovation and entrepreneurship. It is the fourth joint conference organized by the Robert Schmidt Institute University Wismar, hosted by Shijiazhuang University of Economics, and co-organized by La Consolacion College Manila. The theme of the conference is Education, Innovation, and Economic Society Development, which describes the emphasis that is laid on always combining education with the need of the society, not only to consider one in isolation from the others. Therefore, the primary target of the conference is to provide the delegates with cross-disciplinary interests related to the subjects above in engineering and business education. The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2005. Davidson presents readers with useful rubrics and flowcharts that may be used during each stage of the evaluation. Many of the concepts presented in the chapters are illustrated with specific examples from a range of disciplines. Exercises and pop quiz questions help reinforce the key points covered in each chapter, provide homework assignments for those teaching an evaluation course, and allow learners to develop slices of an evaluation plan as they work their way through the text. Evaluation Methodology Basics is an ideal text for students of evaluation and students in programs that have evaluation course requirements such as education, health, sociology, psychology, and many others throughout the social sciences. It will also be essential reading for practitioners who find themselves thrown into evaluation roles without the benefit of specialized evaluation training.
