Topography of Politics in Rural China Xiaoyang Zhu,2015 Contemporary Chinese rural life is placed in sharp theoretical and practical focus in this book State of the art techniques and perspectives are combined to take the reader into Xiaocun a small village on the east bank of the Dianchi Lake in Kunming City In 2003 the author published the book Crime and Punishment The Story of Xiaocun 1931-1997 which dealt with disputes mediation and punishment in the village following the legal anthropology tradition At that time neither the villagers nor the author foresaw the vast changes that were to appear a few years later Their main economic activity then was growing vegetables and flowers urbanisation was tsunami like in its speed and impact Land requisition for urban development was so swift that five years later in 2008 there was no farmland left Instead there were many landmark real estate and development projects Xiaocun has become the centre of an enlarged Kunming City Observers including the Xiaocun residents are unavoidably shocked at the changes to the physical landscape in the wake of its rapid urbanisation This book Topography of Politics in Rural China The Story of Xiaocun reports the author's revisits to the village starting in early 2007 In the past few years of research on this village the author deeply felt that the problems that make people passionate are fully exposed through issues surrounding land and housing Well written in narrative this book tells the story of Xiaocun in this new century from the perspective of topography exploring the peasantry and its relations to the state in more fundamental terms

Unsettling Absences Eric C. Thompson, 2007 In Unsettling Absences Eric Thompson argues that urbanism is a cultural force unbound from the city and is a pervasive presence in the Malaysian countryside Transported to rural communities urbanism has motivated migration transformed the social lives of rural inhabitants and created a deep ambivalence about personal identity This has left rural Malays feeling out of place in both the city and the village Kuala Lumpur epitomises modernity but rural Malays who move there are often marginalised in squatter settlements on its periphery The kampung symbolises home and the locus of Malay identity but schoolbooks and television have projected urbanism that marks rural life as backwards and marginal in a forward looking nation into the kampung The book challenges city bound urban studies by locating urbanism in a wider world that extends outside of the city and shows the conflicted realities of rural dwellers in an overwhelmingly urban world As others have challenged the meaning of modernity Thompson challenges the meaning of urban while still recognising the powerful effects of an ideology of urbanism Unsettling Absences is a call to take seriously place based identities and cultural geographies in a world where the urban rural divide is dissolving in practice but in cultural terms remains as powerful as ever
