The Body In Contemporary Art:

The Body in Contemporary Art Sally O'Reilly, 2009 A new volume in the acclaimed World of Art series featuring work across a range of media that represents the human body The Disabled Body in Contemporary Art Ann Millett-Gallant, 2024-04-04 The second edition offers an essential update to the foundational first edition The Disabled Body in Contemporary Art Featuring updated chapters and case studies this second edition will not only expand on the first edition but will bring a new focus to contemporary disabled artists and their embodied multimedia work The Body and Theory Kim Forsberg, 1996 The Conformed Body: Contemporary Art in China Jiehong Jiang, 2024-07-29 Through the perspective of the conformed body this groundbreaking book examines the role in art of everyday conformist practices in the People's Republic of China such as mass assemblies and bodily trainings and exercises as well as their impact on people's perceptions and collective memories It identifies related artworks reassesses artistic interpretations with critical reflections and explores a key origin of artistic productions in post Mao China Featuring 200 colour illustrations the book discusses works by more than 30 internationally acclaimed Chinese contemporary artists including Ai Weiwei Geng Jianyi Song Dong Xu Bing Zhang Peili and Zhang Xiaogang Theories on Identity and the Body in Contemporary Art Emily Starr, 2009 In a Queer Time and Place J. Jack Halberstam, Judith Halberstam, 2005 The first full length study of transgender representations in art fiction film video and music In her first book since the critically acclaimed Female Masculinity Judith Halberstam examines the significance of the transgender body in a provocative collection of essays on queer time and space She presents a series of case studies focused on the meanings of masculinity in its dominant and alternative forms especially female and trans masculinities as they exist within subcultures and are appropriated within mainstream culture In a Queer Time and Place opens with a probing analysis of the life and death of Brandon Teena a young transgender man who was brutally murdered in small town Nebraska After looking at mainstream representations of the transgender body as exhibited in the media frenzy surrounding this highly visible case and the Oscar winning film based on Brandon's story Boys Don't Cry Halberstam turns her attention to the cultural and artistic production of queers themselves She examines the transgender gaze as rendered in small art house films like By Hook or By Crook as well as figurations of ambiguous embodiment in the art of Del LaGrace Volcano Jenny Saville Eva Hesse Shirin Neshat and others She then exposes the influence of lesbian drag king cultures upon hetero male comic films such as Austin Powers and The Full Monty and finally points to dyke subcultures as one site for the development of queer counterpublics and queer temporalities Considering the sudden visibility of the transgender body in the early twenty first century against the backdrop of changing conceptions of space and time In a Queer Time and Place is the first full length study of transgender representations in art fiction film video and music This pioneering book offers both a jumping off point for future analysis of transgenderism and an important new way to understand cultural constructions of time and place Body and Soul Rachel Rosenfield Lafo, 1994 White Holes and the Visualization of the Body Žarko

Paić,2019-04-25 This book builds on the works of Artaud and Deleuze setting forth a different way of thinking on the body through the use of a whole new set of conceptual tools Pai argues that the human body has become obsolete in relation to the development of cybernetics and artificial intelligence proposing that it can be understood neither as a bare thing nor a machine but instead as an event The concept of White Holes serves both as a metaphor and as a guide for understanding constellations such as the visualization of the body the corporeal turn fascination with the digital image and the technosphere Through visualization of the body we reach out to a space of singularity of thought that is not a description of reality but rather its aesthetic construction Leading a paradigm shift after the end of metaphysics in cybernetics Pai argues that phenomenology and psychoanalysis can no longer be credible theoretical orientations for deep insight into what happens when artificial life takes over what remains of the body's immanence International Handbook of Research in Arts Education Liora Bresler,2007-09-04 Providing a distillation of knowledge in the various disciplines of arts education dance drama music literature and poetry and visual arts the Handbook synthesizes existing research literature helps define the past and contributes to shaping the substantive and methodological future of the respective and integrated disciplines of arts education While research can at times seem distant from practice the Handbook aims to maintain connection with the lived practice of art and of education capturing the vibrancy and best thinking in the field of theory and practice The Handbook is organized into 13 sections each centering on a major area or issue in arts education research These areas include History of arts education curriculum evaluation cultural centers appreciation composition informal learning child culture creativity the body spirituality and technology The individual chapters address cross cultural research related to the central theme of the section from the perspectives of the particular arts discipline Interludes provide reflective thoughts on the theme Body of Art Phaidon Editors,2015-10-12 The first book to celebrate the beautiful and provocative ways artists have represented scrutinized and utilized the body over centuries Body of Art is the first book to explore the various ways the human body has been both an inspiration and a medium for artists over hundreds of thousands of years Unprecedented in its scope it examines the many different manifestations of the body in art from Anthony Gormley and Maya Lin sculptures to eight armed Hindu gods and ancient Greek reliefs from feminist graphics and Warhol's empty electric chair to the blue tinted complexion of Singer Sargent's Madame X It is the most expansive examination of the human body in art spanning western and non western ancient to contemporary representative to abstract and conceptual Over 400 artists are featured in chapters that explore identity beauty religion absent body sex and gender power body's limits abject body and bodies space Works range from 11 000 BC hand stencils in Argentine caves to videos and performances by contemporary artists such as Marina Abramovic Joan Jonas and Bruce Nauman Its fresh accessible and dynamic voice brings to life the thrilling diversity of both classical and contemporary art through the prism of the body More than simply a book of representations this is an original and thought provoking look at the human body across time cultures and media The Role of Fragments of the Body in

Contemporary Art Kathryn Scott, 2001 The Body in Women's Art Now: Embodied Philippa Found, 2009 The Body in Women's Art Now is a three part series of touring art exhibitions curated by Philippa Found Gallery Director of ROLLO Contemporary Art examining key themes in women's art of the last decade in which the body is central What the Body Cost Jane Blocker, 2004 Because performance is by its very nature ephemeral it elicits a desire for what is lost more than any other form of art making But what is the nature of that desire and on what models has it been structured How has it affected the ways in which the history of performance art gets told In What the Body Cost Jane Blocker revisits key works in performance art by Carolee Schneemann Vito Acconci Hannah Wilke Yves Klein Ana Mendieta and others to challenge earlier critiques that characterize performance or body art as a purely revolutionary art form and fail to recognize its reactionary and sometimes damaging effects The scholarship to date on performance art has not she finds gone far enough in locating the body at the center of the performance nor has it acknowledged the psychic emotional or social costs exacted on that body Drawing on the work of critical theorists such as Roland Barthes and Catherine Belsey as well as queer theory and feminism What the Body Cost reads against patriarchal and heteronormative tendencies in art history while providing a corrective to the established view that performance art is necessarily transgressive Instead Blocker suggests that the historiography of performance art is a postmodern lovers discourse in which practitioners historians and critics alike fervently seek the body while doubting it can ever be found Jane Blocker is assistant professor of art history at the University of Minnesota and author of Where Is Ana Mendieta Identity Performativity and Exile 1999 The Visible and the Invisible , 1996 Life and Death Silvia Fok, 2013 For all their ubiquity life and death have not been fully explored as integral themes in many forms of contemporary Chinese art Life and Death addresses that lacuna Exploring the strategies employed by a variety of Chinese artists who engage with these timeless concerns Silvia Fok opens a new line of inquiry about contemporary art in a rapidly changing environment Fok focuses in particular on the ways in which these artists use their own bodies animals bodies and other corporeal substances to represent life and death in performance art installations and photography Over the course of her investigations corporeality emerges as a common means of highlighting the social and cultural issues that surround these themes By assessing its effectiveness in the expression of life death and related ideas Fok ultimately illuminates the extent to which we can see corporeality as a significant trend in the history of contemporary art in China Her conclusions will fascinate scholars of performance and installation art photography and contemporary Chinese art Thinking Through the Skin Sara Ahmed, Jackie Stacey, 2003-09-02 This exciting collection of work from leading feminist scholars including Elspeth Probyn Penelope Deutscher and Chantal Nadeau engages with and extends the growing feminist literature on lived and imagined embodiment and argues for consideration of the skin as a site where bodies take form already written upon but open to endless re inscription Individual chapters consider such issues as the significance of piercing tattooing and tanning the assault of self harm upon the skin the relation between body painting and the land among the indigenous people of Australia and the cultural economy of fur in Canada Pierced mutilated and marked mortified and glorified scarred by disease and stretched and enveloping the skin of another in pregnancy skin is seen here as both a boundary and a point of connection the place where one touches and is touched by others both the most private of experiences and the most public marker of a raced sexed and national history The Methuen Drama Companion to Performance Art Bertie Ferdman,Jovana Stokic,2020-02-20 The Methuen Drama Companion to Performance Art offers a comprehensive guide to the major issues and interdisciplinary debates concerning performance in art contexts that have developed over the last decade It understands performance art as an institutional cultural and economic phenomenon rather than as a label or object Following the ever increasing institutionalization and mainstreaming of performance the book s chapters identify a marked change in the economies and labor practices surrounding performance art and explore how this development is reflective of capitalist approaches to art and event production Embracing what we perceive to be the oxymoronic status of performance art where it is simultaneously precarious and highly profitable the essays in this book map the myriad gestures and radical possibilities of this extreme contradiction This Companion adopts an interdisciplinary perspective to present performance art s legacies and its current practices It brings together specially commissioned essays from leading innovative scholars from a wide range of approaches including art history visual and performance studies dance and theatre scholarship in order to provide a comprehensive and multifocal overview of the emerging research trends and methodologies devoted to performance art

Bodily Engagements with Film, Images, and Technology Max Ryyänen,2022-04-10 This book builds a new understanding of the body and its relationship to images and technology using a framework where novel writings of pragmatist somaesthetics and phenomenology meet new research on bodily reactions Max Ryyänen gives an overview of the topic by collecting the existing information of our bodies gazing at visual culture and the philosophies supporting these phenomena and examines the way the gaze and the body come together in our relationship to culture Themes covered include somatic film the body in artistic documentation of activist art body parts and their mutilation or surgeries in contemporary art and film robot cars and our visual relationship to them the usefulness of Indian rasa philosophy in explaining digital culture and an examination of Mario Perniola s work about the idea that we human beings are increasingly experiencing ourselves to be simply things The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history aesthetics cultural philosophy film studies technology studies media studies cultural studies and visual studies Religion und Translation Christiane Nord,Mehmet Tahir Öncü,Abdel-Hafiez Massud,2021-03-01 Die Buchreligionen Islam und Christentum können ohne das Wort nicht auskommen auch wenn dieses für beide jeweils unterschiedliche Bedeutungen hat Zumindest dort wo Religion weitergegeben wird ist jedoch das Medium Wort unverzichtbar Das gilt auch für die Weitergabe der Religion an anderssprachige Adressaten Mit diesem letzten Fall befassen sich die Beiträge in diesem Band die nicht nur theologisch bzw theologisch historisch und translationswissenschaftlich motiviert sind sondern auch zum Teil religionsdidaktischen Überlegungen folgen Translation wird

daher zur Technik um die Botschaft der heiligen Bücher weiterzugeben Dieser Aspekt gewinnt etwa mit der jüngsten Etablierung des deutschsprachigen Islamunterrichts an deutschen Schulen immer mehr an Bedeutung Dass dieser zur Zeit noch nicht wirklich ankommt hat sicher auch mit sprachlichen Problemen zu tun Ähnliches gilt auch für den christlichen Religionsunterricht zumindest dort wo er in mehrsprachigen und multikulturellen Kontexten stattfindet Translation findet jedoch nicht nur im Bereich des schriftlich oder mündlich gebrauchten Wortes statt sondern auch zwischen Medien zum Beispiel zwischen Wort und Bild und hier eröffnen sich zum Teil noch unbeackerte Forschungsfelder

Mediating the Human Body Leopoldina Fortunati, James E. Katz, Raimonda Riccini, 2003-06-20 The ever increasing integration of technology and the human body is attracting attention from religious business and political leaders around the world and the topic promises to be a significant social issue in the 21st century In Mediating the Human Body Technology Communication and Fashion editors Leopoldina Fortunati James E Katz and Raimonda Riccini bring together a thoughtful group of leading international scholars and analysts to explore the effects of new technologies on human beings They focus specifically on the intersection of new communication technologies and the body and offer novel insights based on recent theoretical progress and current research on new interpersonal technology Through literary analysis historical comparisons analytical reports and speculative interpretations the contributors to this volume seek to understand the experience of the body as it is mediated among competing forces and intellectual domains Arising from The Human Body Between Technologies Communication and Fashion symposium held in Milan Italy contributions cover a wide array of topics and offer varied perspectives on how communication technologies are assimilated into people's lives bodies and homes and thus become part of individuals' self images and social relationships From this multidisciplinary multi national base the volume illuminates the sense and dimension of this interpenetration between body and technology In its broad scope the topics range from the wellsprings of consciousness to the use of technology as a fashion statement Bringing together scholarship from a variety of disciplines including communication medicine technology and human computer interaction this distinctive anthology will provide new insights to scholars and advanced students exploring body technology intersections and the attendant implications Mediating the Human Body offers a unique contribution to future discussions and will be relevant to continuing study and research in communication and technology human computer interaction gender studies social psychology and design
