In this captivating and profound Antoine Wilson author of Mouth to Mouth debut novel an art historian journeys to a Greek island in pursuit of a found sculpture and quickly finds herself immersed in a cultural tug of war and a complicated love affair. 1999. An island off the southern coast of Greece. Art historian Elizabeth Clarke arrives with the intent to acquire a rare female sculpture. But what begins as a quest for a highly valued cultural artifact evolves into a trip that will force Elizabeth to contend with her career, her ambition, and her troubling history. Disoriented by jet lag and a dependence on prescription pills, Elizabeth turns to her charming translator to guide her around the labyrinthine island. Soon the island's lushness, its heat and light, its textures and tastes take hold of Elizabeth. And when she's introduced to her translator's inscrutable wife, a subversive artist whose work seeks to deconstruct the female form, she becomes unexpectedly enthralled by her. But once the nude's acquisition proves to be riskier than Elizabeth could have ever imagined, Elizabeth's and the statue's fate are called into question. To find a way out, Elizabeth must grapple with her past, the role she's played in the global art trade, and the ethical fallout of her decisions. Could leave behind. Gripping, provocative, and sensual. The Nude pries apart the pristine veneer of classical art and allows something sublimely twisted to emerge. Alexandra Kleeman author of Something New Under the Sun. A Twist of Murder Heather Redmond, 2022-10-25. The acclaimed historical mystery series A Dickens of a Crime continues with a reimagining of Charles Dickens's classic Oliver Twist, filled with murder, mystery, and a young Dickens himself as the amateur sleuth. In other words, Please can we have some more Harrow on the Hill. March 1836. In a sense, orphans Ollie John and Arthur have always been treasure hunters. The mudlarks have gone from a hardscrabble life scavenging the banks of the Thames for bits and bobs to becoming students at a boarding school outside of London thanks to the kind and generous intercession of Charles Dickens. But now they're missing, as is apparently a treasure map. When Charles arrives at the school, he's hit with another twist: the servant girl who was allegedly in possession of the map has been strangled in the icehouse. Unbeknownst to them on their spirited adventure, his young friends may be in mortal danger. Now Charles and his fiancée Kate Hogarth, who has come to join him in the search for the runaways, must artfully dodge false leads and red herrings to find the boys and the map before X marks the spot of their graves.
