Fear And Fashion In The Cold War:

Fear and Fashion in the Cold War Jane Pavitt, 2008-09 This book explores Cold War fashion in all its aspects ranging from innovations in materials to the cybernetic visions of the 1960s from the bikini to the spacesuit vinyl radiation suits to high tech jewellery Paco Rabanne to Barbarella Set in the context of art film science and design Pavitt explores how the image of the body was shaped by Cold War concerns atomic anxieties the space race technological developments and the first forays into hyper reality With a stunning selection of images alongside military political and scientific research the book shows how counter cultural theories and experiences in the later 1960s shaped an alternative view of the Cold War Body Bulletproof Fashion Barbara Sutton, 2023-05-23 In the context of gun proliferation and persistent gun BOOK JACKET violence in the United States a controversial security strategy has gained public attention bulletproof fashion This book examines concerns about security focusing on armored clothing and accessories for civilians Available for children and adults such ballistic products include colorful backpacks elegant suits sports jackets feminine dresses trendy vests and medical lab coats These products are paradigmatic of a fashion of fear the practice of outfitting the body with apparel aimed at maximizing personal security This fashion encourages the emergence of both a fortress body and an armored society Sutton also explores the wider social factors influencing the bulletproof fashion phenomenon including the inequalities associated with neoliberalism and the militarization of civilian life The book sheds light on the role of emotions in relation to discourses and perceptions of security and encourages feminist and sociological studies to pay attention to the linkages between security bodies and dress It is ideal for students and scholars interested in security and gun violence culture and politics neoliberalism and consumption and bodies and emotions RaumKleider Karl R. Kegler, Anna Minta, Niklas Naehrig, 2018-07-15 Kleider sind Lebensentw rfe ebenso wie Bauten und Architekturen Reform Modernit t Sachlichkeit und Regionalit t veranschaulichen sich in Kleidung wie in architektonischen Formen Architekten und Designer des 20 Jahrhunderts haben nicht allein ber die Zusammenh nge von Architektur und Bekleidung geschrieben sondern auch eigene Kleiderentw rfe angefertigt Die Beitr ge in deren Zentrum neben Architektur und Mode auch Interieur und Film stehen gehen den Wechselbeziehungen zwischen Architekturentw rfen und korrespondierenden Menschenbildern nach Kul'tura Kosmosa Andrew Thomas, 2011 This thesis argues that there is a popular culture of space exploration characteristic of a wider Russia its roots lie in pagan times and it grew through Orthodox Christianity and Soviet Communism to the twenty first century where it is actively promoted by Russia and neighbouring nations The key influences stem from Nikolai Fedorov Kontsantin Tsiolkovsky Friedrich Tsander and Yuri Gagarin The narrative of the twentieth century Soviet space programme is considered from this perspective and the cultural importance of Tsiolkovsky to this programme is acknowledged This is an alternative perspective to the commonly held Western view of the Space Race The manipulation of imagery and ritual of space exploration by Russia and other neighbouring nations is examined and the effect on the collective remembering in modern Russia of key events in Russian space exploration is tested The Films of Charles and Ray Eames Eric Schuldenfrei, 2014-12-05 The Films of Charles and Ray Eames traces the history of the Eameses work examining their evolution away from the design of mass produced goods and toward projects created as educational experiences Closely examining how the Eameses described their work reveals how the films and exhibitions they generated were completely at odds with the earlier objectives exemplified in their furniture designs Shifting away from promoting the consumer culture they turned their attention to the presentation of complex sets of scientific artistic and philosophical ideas During a critical period from the late 1950s to the early 1960s there was a moment of introspective self reflection in the West stemming from the events of the Cold War This moment of uncertainty was crucial for it provided the incentive to question the values and concerns of society as a whole In turn designers began to question their own sense of purpose temporarily expanding the purview of design to a broader field of inquiry In the case of the Eameses they identified an overriding problem related to consumerism and excess in America and sought to resolve the issue by creating a network of communication between universities governments institutions and corporations The solution of promoting greater education experiences as an alternative to consumerism in America required that different sectors of society functioned in unison to address political social economic and educational concerns The Films of Charles and Ray Eames reconsiders how design intersects with humanity culture and the sciences The Business of Emotions in Modern History Mandy L. Cooper, Andrew Popp, 2023-01-12 The Business of Emotions in Modern History shows how businesses from individual entrepreneurs to family firms and massive corporations have relied on leveraged generated and been shaped by emotions for centuries With a broad temporal and global coverage ranging from the early modern era to the present day in Africa Asia Europe and North America the essays in this volume highlight the rich potential for studying emotions and business in tandem In exploring how emotions and emotional situations affect business and in turn how businesses affect the emotional lives of individuals and communities this book allows us to recognise the emotional structures behind business decisions and relationships and how to question them From emotional labour in family firms to affective corporate paternalism and the role of specific emotions such as trust fear anxiety love and nostalgia in creating economic connections this book opens a rich new avenue of research for both the history of emotions and business history Fashioning Memory Heike Jenss, 2015-10-22 The valuing of old clothes as vintage and the recollection of the sartorial past whether through second hand consumption or the wearing of new old fashioned clothes has become a widespread phenomenon This book illuminates sartorial and bodily engagements with memory and time through the temporal and nostalgic potency of fashion and what this means for contemporary wearers Based on in depth ethnographic research including participant observation and interviews with sixties enthusiasts in Germany who relocate British mod style into the twenty first century Jenss examines the practices and experiences that are part of the sartorial remembering of the sixties from hunting flea markets and eBay to the affect of material and mediated memories on vintage wearers lenss offers unique insights into the fashioning of time cultural memory and modernity tracing the history and current appeal of vintage in fashion and youth culture and asking what kind of experiences of temporality and memory are enacted through fashion How have evaluations of second hand clothes shifted in the twentieth century Fashioning Memory provides a unique insight into the diverse use of fashion as a memory mode and asks how style is remembered performed transformed and reinvested across time place and generation The Socialist Sixties Anne E. Gorsuch, Diane P. Koenker, 2021-12-22 A very engaging collection of essays that adds much to an evolving literature on the social history of the Soviet Union and broader socialist societies Choice The 1960s have reemerged in scholarly and popular culture as a protean moment of cultural revolution and social transformation In this volume socialist societies in the Second World the Soviet Union East European countries and Cuba are the springboard for exploring global interconnections and cultural cross pollination between communist and capitalist countries and within the communist world Themes explored include flows of people and media the emergence of a flourishing youth culture sharing of songs films and personal experiences through tourism and international festivals and the rise of a socialist consumer culture and an esthetics of modernity Challenging traditional categories of analysis and periodization this book brings the sixties problematic to Soviet studies while introducing the socialist experience into scholarly conversations traditionally dominated by First World Dance, Performance and Visual Art Linda E. Dankworth, Henia Rottenberg, Deborah Williams, 2024-10-27 perspectives This collection presents a selection of essays written from a point of view that has dance movement or performance at its centre and examines the intellectual and material relationship to the art form from which they are conceived The themes that emerge from the authors contributions signify a desire to explore individual techniques in making art or unravelling the techniques of others within the composition of visual art and its contemporary movement language Similarly textual and pictorial representations depict both antiquated and modern art and all their social aspects of human life Digitization also remains a strong focus in both dance and its representation in performance contexts and place in social constructs of societies The Establishment Responds K. Fahlenbrach, M. Klimke, J. Scharloth, L. Wong, 2012-01-02 This volume fills this gap by examining the many ways in which political parties the business world foreign policymakers and the intelligence community experienced confronted and even actively contributed to domestic and transnational forms of dissent

Abstractions and Embodiments Janet Abbate, Stephanie Dick, 2022-08-30 Cutting edge historians explore ideas communities and technologies around modern computing to explore how computers mediate social relations Computers have been framed both as a mirror for the human mind and as an irreducible other that humanness is defined against depending on different historical definitions of humanness They can serve both liberation and control because some people s freedom has historically been predicated on controlling others Historians of computing return again and again to these contradictions as they often reveal deeper structures Using twin frameworks of abstraction and embodiment a reformulation of the old mind body dichotomy this anthology examines how social relations are enacted in and through computing The authors examining Abstraction revisit central concepts in computing including algorithm program clone and risk In doing so they demonstrate how the meanings of these terms reflect power relations and social identities The section on Embodiments focuses on sensory aspects of using computers as well as the ways in which gender race and other identities have shaped the opportunities and embodied experiences of computer workers and users Offering a rich and diverse set of studies in new areas the book explores such disparate themes as disability the influence of the punk movement working mothers as technical innovators and gaming behind the Iron Curtain Abstractions and Embodiments reimagines computing history by questioning canonical interpretations foregrounding new actors and contexts and highlighting neglected aspects of computing as an embodied experience It makes the profound case that both technology and the body are culturally shaped and that there can be no clear distinction between social intellectual and technical aspects of computing Contributors Janet Abbate Marc Aidinoff Troy Kaighin Astarte Ekaterina Babinsteva Andr Brock Maarten Bullynck Jiahui Chan Gerardo Con Diaz Liesbeth De Mol Stephanie Dick Kelcey Gibbons Elyse Graham Michael J Halvorson Mar Hicks Scott Kushner Xiaochang Li Zachary Loeb Lisa Nakamura Tiffany Nichols Laine Nooney Elizabeth Petrick Cierra Robson Hallam Stevens Jaroslav velch

career and the public s response to both her column and her politics Hedda Hopper's Hollywood illustrates how the conservative gossip maven contributed mightily to the public understanding of film while providing a platform for women to voice political views within a traditionally masculine public realm Jennifer Frost builds the case that as practiced by Hopper and her readers Hollywood gossip shaped key developments in American movies and movie culture newspaper journalism and conservative politics along with the culture of gossip itself all of which continue to play out today Read a review of the book from the Chronicle of Higher Education blog Tenured Radical C&A Mark Spoerer, 2016-12-05 The history of CA is paradigmatic of the economisation and rationalisation of the production and sale of clothing since the late nineteenth century Mark Spoerer describes the historical ups and downs of this Dutch family business from its beginnings in Germany through the post war German economic miracle He investigates how the Brenninkmeijer family s traditional policy of recruiting new business leaders from its own ranks influences the company s long term strategy In 1841 the brothers Clemens and August Brenninkmeijer who had gotten their start in the itinerant garment trade in Westphalia founded a business in the Netherlands that would expand to Germany in 1911 and to Britain in 1922 Despite the difficulties the Brenninkmeijers encountered as foreigners capitalists and Catholics in the Third Reich they exploited those chances opened up by the Nazi regime including the Aryanisation of property After 1945 the company experienced furious growth with the rise of a new consumer society developing into one of Europe's largest fashion retailers Futureproof D. Asher Ghertner, Hudson McFann, Daniel M. Goldstein, 2020-01-31 The contributors to Future proof examine the affective and aesthetic dimensions of security infrastructures and technology with studies ranging from Jamaica and Jakarta to Colombia and the US Mexico border The Future of U.S. Foreign Policy United States.
