

FINANCIAL ACCOUNTING

VS

MANAGERIAL ACCOUNTING

BY NICOLAS BOUCHER

EXTERNAL STAKEHOLDERS

Financial accounting is primarily concerned with external stakeholders (investors & creditors).

It's focused on producing financial statements that accurately reflect the financial position and performance of the company.

Financial accounting is governed by Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP)

Financial accounting reports are typically prepared on a periodic basis (e.g., monthly or quarterly)

INTERNAL MANAGEMENT

Managerial accounting on the other hand, is focused on internal management.

It provides then with financial information that helps them make informed decisions about the company's operations.

Managerial accounting is not subject to any specific set of standards.

Whereas Managerial accounting reports can be produced on an ad-hoc basis as needed.

Casino Accounting and Financial Management

E. Malcolm Greenlees, 2008-10-01 In this work author E. Malcolm Greenlees provides detailed information about the role of state governments in the regulation of gaming. He also discusses the dominance of slot machines as the major revenue source in most casinos; he provides information about changes in the types and operation of slot machines as well as accounting procedures for slot revenues. The book covers every aspect of the financial management of a casino from the details of licensing and regulation to revenue taxation, the management of slot machines and other gaming devices, table games and betting operations, revenue flows and internal cash controls, cashiering, accounting and financial reporting. Casino Accounting and Financial Management has been recognized as the essential manual for gaming industry professionals since its first publication in 1988. This 2008 edition is updated throughout and greatly expands the original text, addressing growth and changes in the casino industry as gaming has spread into new venues both nationwide and internationally, incorporated new games and new technology, and become subject to new management policies and new government regulations.

Financial Management for Libraries

William W. Sannwald, 2018-12-03 Presenting financial management principles and best practices applicable to both public and academic libraries, this comprehensive text elucidates a broad array of issues crucial for those entering a managerial position. Both thorough and straightforward, Sannwald's treatment gives readers a solid grounding in the basics of accounting and finance with an emphasis on applicability to library management and operations. It ties budgets and strategic planning to library vision, mission, goals and objectives; discusses the roles of stakeholders such as boards, governmental, municipal bodies, the university, and the community; looks at a variety of funding sources from tax revenue to gifts and donations; and presents sound strategies for including them when projecting income and expenses. It articulates and discusses the pros and cons of various budget strategies, includes sample budgets and forms that can be customized as needed, offers expert guidance on modifying budgets for windfalls and shortfalls, explains operating ratios, fiscal benchmarking and metrics, demonstrating how to use these to effectively create and manage a budget and assess the fiscal health of the library, and advises on how to effectively prepare and present a budget and annual financial statements to a library's governing agency. Ideal for course use, this book will also serve as a ready reference for practitioners.
