Instrumental Music for Dyslexics Sheila Oglethorpe, 2008-04-15 Instrumental Music for Dyslexics is written mainly for music teachers. It describes dyslexia in layman's terms and explains how the various problems which a dyslexic may have can affect all aspects of learning to play a musical instrument. It alerts the music teacher with a problem pupil to the possibilities of that pupil's having some form of dyslexia. Although Sheila Oglethorpe is primarily a piano teacher, the general principle behind most if not all the suggestions is such that they can be adapted for use by other instrumentalists. The book presents ways in which the music teacher can contribute to the self-esteem and thereby the general welfare of the dyslexic pupil who is often musically gifted and has much to offer. The book will also be of interest to dyslexia specialists who have hitherto directed their concentration towards the language-based problems of the dyslexic.

Music in Independent Schools Bernarr Rainbow, Andrew Morris, 2014 The first serious study of music in independent schools which bears eloquent witness to a high standard achieved over the last fifty years. This is the first serious study of music in independent schools. The high standard of musical work in such schools has long been known but now Andrew Morris and his team have provided up-to-date information. There are contributions from seven individual schools: Bedford, Dulwich, Eton, Gresham's, St Paul's, Uppingham and Workshop, as well as chapters about Girls' Schools, Preparatory Schools, Choir Schools and Specialist Schools. Andrew Morris was Director of Music at Bedford School for thirty-two years and was President of the Music Masters and Mistresses Association in 1996-97. He is thus ideally placed to mastermind a substantial compendium which is eminently readable and absorbing. The book includes material from Bernarr Rainbow's study Music in the English Public School 1990 and brings it up to date. As a historian, Rainbow looked back at how music developed in independent schools. Progress was slow even tortuous but Rainbow's fascinating documents supported by his commentary show how idealism won through and Morris and his colleagues bear eloquent witness to the very positive development over the last fifty years.

ANDREW MORRIS taught in secondary modern, grammar and comprehensive schools in London before becoming Director of Music at Bedford School for thirty-two years. He was President of the Music Masters and Mistresses Association from 1996-97 and President of the RAM Club at the Royal Academy of Music 2005-06. He has examined for the ABRSM for over thirty years.

BERNARR RAINBOW 1914-1998 is widely recognised as the leading authority on the history of music education. His seminal books are all published by Boydell and are listed on the back pages of this volume. His series of Classic Texts in Music Education is a major resource and in 1997 he founded the Bernarr Rainbow Trust which supports projects in music education.

Huff, Eleanor Blakely , Polly Chang, 2024-12-17 Space is known as the final frontier and for good reason Many of us remember looking at the stars as a kid and dreaming about going there So far only a few hundred humans have ever been in space and these astronauts have had to train long and hard for that chance This is because space is harsh to humans things we experience on Earth like gravity an atmosphere and even each other are missing in the space environment One of the biggest issues for human space exploration is the radiation exposure astronauts will experience during a mission Radiation exposure can cause several health issues including cancer cardiovascular disease and brain and performance decrements There is also radiation exposure from sun flares that astronauts need protection for To ensure that astronauts can safely explore the cosmos and remain healthy we have to characterize the human health risks from space radiation exposure and provide prevention or protection strategies

when necessary The issue of space radiation is complex and multidisciplinary It involves the range of sciences from basic physics all the way to the clinician In this collection we present articles both core concept and new discovery article types that cover this wide range of topics Space Radiation Bootcamp what is space radiation How do we study space radiation effects in Earth based labs What does space radiation mean for the human in space Keeping the astronauts safe from solar flares Cardiovascular health effects in our astronauts Brain and behavioral Effects from space radiation in our astronauts Cancer the astronaut These articles are reviewed by young minds like yourself with the same shared interests and passion for getting those spacesuit boots back onto the Moon and then forward to Mars We hope that this collection fuels that spark in you like it does in us

Music and Institutions in Nineteenth-Century Britain Paul Rodmell, 2016-04-29 In nineteenth century British society music and musicians were organized as they had never been before This organization was manifested in part by the introduction of music into powerful institutions both out of belief in music s inherently beneficial properties and also to promote music occupations and professions in society at large This book provides a representative and varied sample of the interactions between music and organizations in various locations in the nineteenth century British Empire exploring not only how and why music was institutionalized but also how and why institutions became musicalized Individual essays explore amateur societies that promoted music making institutions that played host to music making groups both amateur and professional music in diverse educational institutions and the relationships between music and what might be referred to as the institutions of state Through all of the essays runs the theme of the various ways in which institutions of varying formality and rigidity interacted with music and musicians and the mutual benefit and exploitation that resulted from that interaction
