Cruel Children in Popular Texts and Cultures Monica Flegel, Christopher Parkes, 2018-04-19 This book explores how alarmist social discourses about cruel young people fail to recognize the complexity of cruelty and the role it plays in child agency Examining representations of cruel young people in popular texts and popular culture the collected essays demonstrate how gender race and class influence who gets labeled cruel and which actions are viewed as negative aggressive and disruptive It shows how representations of cruel young people negotiate the violence that shadows polite society and how narratives of cruelty and aggression are used to affirm or to deny young people s agency

House of Stairs William Sleator, 1974 Five fifteen year old orphans of widely varying personality characteristics are involuntarily placed in a house of endless stairs as subjects for a psychological experiment on conditioned human response Disturbing the Universe Roberta S. Trites, 1998-04-01 The Young Adult novel is ordinarily characterized as a coming of age story in which the narrative revolves around the individual growth and maturation of a character but Roberta Trites expands this notion by chronicling the dynamics of power and repression that weave their way through YA books Characters in these novels must learn to negotiate the levels of power that exist in the myriad social institutions within which they function including family church government and school Trites argues that the development of the genre over the past thirty years is an outgrowth of postmodernism since YA novels are by definition texts that interrogate the social construction of individuals Drawing on such nineteenth century precursors as Little Women and Adventures of Huckleberry Finn Disturbing the Universe demonstrates how important it is to employ poststructuralist methodologies in analyzing adolescent literature both in critical studies and in the classroom Among the twentieth century authors discussed are Blume Hamilton Hinton Le Guin L Engle and Zindel Trites work has applications for a broad range of readers including scholars of children s literature and theorists of post modernity as well as librarians and secondary school teachers Disturbing the Universe Power and Repression in Adolescent Literature by Roberta Seelinger Trites is the winner of the 2002 Children s Literature Association s Book Award The award is given annually in order to promote and recognize outstanding contributions to children s literature history scholarship and criticism it is one of the highest academic honors that can accrue to an author of children s literary criticism
