Different Perspectives, Different Cultures, Different Places ,2023-11-20 Eight international and four domestic doctoral students share the story of completing their doctoral journey at an Australian university as well as their experiences of being part of a large collaborative research group that served as a source of support and motivation on their doctoral journey They share their dreams hopes and frustrations of searching applying being rejected and finally accepted as a doctoral candidate International students share their impressions and experiences of being in a new land with a new language and immersing themselves and their families in a distinctly different culture and society These are the stories of the challenges they encountered and their struggles and successes Contributors are Elizabeth Allotta Laura Emily Clark Maria Ejlertsen Daeul Jeong Solange Lima Huifang Liu Mohammad Tareque Rahman Umme Salma Margaret Schuls Sara Haghighi Siahgorabi Lauren Thomasse and Tran Le Nghi Tran The Routledge Handbook of Materials Development for Language Teaching Julie Norton, Heather Buchanan, 2022-03-16 The Routledge Handbook of Materials Development for Language Teaching is the definitive resource for all working in this area of language and English language teaching With 34 chapters authored by leading figures from around the world the Handbook provides an historical overview of the development of language teaching materials critical discussion of core issues and an assessment of future directions The contributions represent a range of different international contexts providing insightful state of the art coverage of the field Structured in nine sections the Handbook covers changes and developments in language teaching materials controversial issues in materials development research and materials development materials for language learning and skills development materials evaluation and adaptation materials for specific contexts materials development and technology developing materials for publication professional development and materials writing Demonstrating throughout the dynamic relationship between theory and practice this accessible Handbook is essential reading for researchers scholars and students on MA programmes in ELT TESOL and applied linguistics Recounting Cultural Encounters Marija Knežević, 2009-10-02 Contributions reprinted in this book highlight some of the wide ranging ways in which the issues of culture and identity can be approached in a literary text while focusing on the ways in which cultural encounters have been changing both the world and its reflection in literature The beginning of the twenty first century is an appropriate time to repay careful attention to these issues Understanding how our perception of the Other changes with the concept of the world we inhabit we want to emphasize the rising importance of fostering cultural pluralism and global understanding Having based their research on widespread readings in academia such as deconstruction post colonialism post modernism new historicism and narratology the authors of these papers proceed by addressing the metaphor of travel as one of the strongest metaphors for the evolution of mankind especially if considered under the light of the historically and politically imposed opposition between the progressive western and the static eastern or African societies However as the end of the imperialist era brought about poignant awareness of cultural relativism as well as deconstruction of the great narrative of progress facing the Other as an unconceptualized entity became a major moral concern of a modern traveller. It is pronounced that this concern should be textually testified to dramatize the human inability to avoid verbal appropriation of the other. The final question we seek to answer is whether the era of advanced technology and globalisation along with a post modern ironical attitude to hyper realities and textual transparencies has rendered the sphere of the text the only available point of concern of contemporary literature and thought in general. For its argumentation strongly founded in recent literary studies and humanities in general its interdisciplinary nature and its focus on the actual global problems of abrupt cultural change and exchange its heightened understanding of the necessity of coexistence of differences in a changing world its spirit of tolerance and its international spirit in general we assume this collection will not only attract academic literary scholars but will also appeal to the general reading public.
