Professional Development Plan – Classroom Teacher Instructions

If an employee's performance or behavior is less than satisfactory, the principal or supervisor should consider placing the employee on a Professional Development Plan to address specific deficiencies. The purpose of the plan is to help the employee achieve satisfactory performance or behavior using a structured approach within a specific timeframe. The supervisor and employee should establish specific objectives for improvement which are supported by various activities over a specified time period. Finally, criteria describing incremental steps towards the goal(s) help measure improvement or lack of progress.

Periodic progress meetings between the employee and supervisor/principal are strongly encouraged weekly.

The template includes all objectives and example related activities as a guide for you in the development of a PDP for an individual. Flexibility has been integrated in the template so that you can add, delete, and modify any item so the resulting PDP is specific to the situation. You will want to remove the items that do not pertain to this individual and often will be entire sections of the objectives.

I. IDENTIFICATION

Employee Name, SSN, Location, Position / Job Title: Self-Explanatory.

Dates employee was hired:

Important information to put current performance or behavior issues into context.

Previous written warning:

Except in rare cases, an employee should receive at least one written warning prior to being placed on a PDP. Such a warning may take the form of a letter of concern, letter of direction, an annual evaluation, or written feedback from a formal classroom observation.

Tenure:

Teachers are normally tenured if they have accepted their 4th consecutive contract from the same Board of Education (BOE), or have transferred to CCSD from another Georgia district where they were tenured and have since accepted their 2nd consecutive contract from the CCSD.

If you have any questions about an individual's tenure status, please contact the Professional Standards and Ethics office.

II. STATUS

Status:

Represents the information for this version of the document. Choose the appropriate option from the drop-down: Initial PDP, Completed Successful, Modified/Updated, Extended, Completed Unsuccessful.

Based on the version, complete or update the corresponding begin/modify date, end date, comments, and date copy sent to Professional Standards and Ethics. For the date fields, click in the box and select the drop down arrow to display the calendar; you may also key in the date if desired. If you have no comments, you can delete this item from the document. In general, you should have comments to add for any extended or modified PDP.

Date PDP Begins and Ends:

Start and end dates should be established and agreed upon by the principal/supervisor and employee before the PDP takes effect. PDPs should last long enough to allow for remediation. Actual PDP length will vary on a case-by-case
