Literature OHCREL is designed to offer a comprehensive investigation of the numerous and diverse ways in which literary texts of the classical world have stimulated responses and refashioning by English writers. Covering the full range of English literature from the early Middle Ages to the present day OHCREL both synthesizes existing scholarship and presents cutting edge new research employing an international team of expert contributors for each of the five volumes. OHCREL endeavours to interrogate rather than inertly reiterate conventional assumptions about literary periods, the processes of canon formation and the relations between literary and non literary discourse. It conceives of reception as a complex process of dialogic exchange and rather than offering large cultural generalizations it engages in close critical analysis of literary texts. It explores in detail the ways in which English writers' engagement with classical literature casts as much light on the classical originals as it does on the English writers' own cultural context. This first volume and fourth to appear in the series covers the years c 800-1558 and surveys the reception and transformation of classical literary culture in England from the Anglo Saxon period up to the Henrician era. Chapters on the classics in the medieval curriculum, the trivium and quadrivium, medieval libraries and medieval mythography provide context for medieval reception. The reception of specific classical authors and traditions is represented in chapters on Virgil, Ovid, Lucan, Statius, the matter of Troy, Boethius, moral philosophy, historiography, biblical epics, English learning in the twelfth century and the role of antiquity in medieval alliterative poetry. The medieval section includes coverage of Chaucer, Gower and Lydgate, while the part of the volume dedicated to the later period explores early English humanism, humanist education and libraries in the Henrician era and includes chapters that focus on the classicism of Skelton, Douglas, Wyatt and Surrey.

The Bible Bruce Gordon, 2024-09-26. Wonderful JOHN BARTON. A stupendous intellectual achievement. ANDREW PETTEGREE. A stunning love song to the Bible, this will be a classic. CHINE MCDONALD. The remarkable story of the most influential book in human history. The Bible is the world's best known text. Yet it is a book that never was; its original form does not exist and probably never did. What we have is the inheritance of generation after generation of Christians who have sought to hear God speak. Available in over three thousand languages and taking innumerable forms, each version is a revelation evolving as a reflection of its own culture and moment. Bruce Gordon traces the Bible's astounding journey from its emergence as a codex in the second century to the Reformation to the spectacular growth of Christianity in the Global South today. For centuries a source of inspiration, it has also been a tool for violence and oppression, weaponised in the name of colonialism, and it has expressed hopes for freedom in the struggle for liberation. Found in desert monasteries and Chinese house churches, in Byzantine cathedrals and Guatemalan villages, it has been a book in motion from its very beginnings, a product of more than two thousand years of wandering, restlessness and change. Breathtakingly global in scope, The Bible is a sweeping history of this sacred book told through the stories of its diverse human encounters in search of the divine, revealing not a static text but a living, dynamic cultural force.
