Given the interest in recent years in developing Intercultural Communicative Competence ICC as a key aim in teaching a foreign language textbooks are often studied and evaluated in terms of their roles and impacts on the promotion of intercultural awareness among language learners While some textbook designers prefer to focus on the target language culture others mainly consider the local culture However as most of the research has been conducted on a textbook or a series of coursebooks in a single country there are few studies which analyze the textbooks comparatively in an international setting concerning cultural matters Thus the present work attempts to enrich this discussion by analyzing four English textbooks at the first grade of upper secondary school level from intercultural perspectives in Germany Iran the Netherlands and Sweden In this case this study aims to investigate the extent to which the texts and activities in the textbooks develop intercultural competence Dutch: An Essential Grammar William Z. Shetter,2002-09-11 This Grammar shows step by step how the language is constructed It presents a lively and accessible description of the language using plenty of relevant examples This is the ideal first grammar for the Dutch learner The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2009

Resources in Education ,2001 Studies in English Language and Teaching Herman Wekker,Inge de Mönnink,Jan Aarts,2023-11-27 A Reference Grammar of Romanian Carmen Dobrovie-Sorin,Ion Giurgea,2013-11-15 Based on recent research in formal linguistics this volume provides a thorough description of the whole system of Romanian Noun

Phrases understood in an extended sense that is in addition to nouns pronouns and determiners it examines all the adnominal phrases genitive marked DPs adjectives relative clauses appositions prepositional phrases complement clauses and non finite modifiers The book focuses on syntax and the syntax semantics interface but also includes a systematic morphological description of the language The implicitly comparative description of Romanian contained in the book can serve as a starting point for the study of the syntax semantics of Noun Phrases in other languages regardless of whether or not they are typologically related to Romanian This book will be of special interest to linguists working on Romanian Romance languages comparative linguistics and language typology especially because Romanian is relevant for comparative linguistics not only as a Romance language but also as part of the so called Balkan Sprachbund
