Belief And Unbelief A Philosophy Of Self Knowledge:

Belief and Unbelief Michael Novak, 1994 Belief and Unbelief Michael Novak (theologie), 1966 Belief and Unbelief Michael Novak, Belief and Unbelief : a Philosophy of Self-knowledge : with a New Preface Michael Novak, 1965 Belief and Unbelief Michael Novak, 2017-09-29 This is perhaps the most widely read of Michael Novak's books Belief and Unbelief attempts to push intelligence and articulation as far as possible into the stuff of what so many philosophers set aside as subjectivity It is an impassioned critique of the idea of an unbridgeable gap between the emotive and the cognitive and in its own way represents a major thrust at positivist analysis Written in a context of personal tragedy as well as intellectual search the book is grounded in the belief that human experience is enclosed within a person to person relationship with the source of all things sometimes in darkness other times in aridity but always in deep encounter with community and courage It is written with a deep fidelity to classical Catholic thought as well as a sense of the writings of sociology anthropology and political theory from Harold Lasswell to Friedrich von Hayek This third edition includes Novak's brilliant 1961 article God in the Colleges from Harper's a critique of the technification of university life that rules issues of love death and personal destiny out of bounds and hence leaves aside the mysteries of contingency and risk in favor of the certainties of research production and consumption For such a lost generation Belief and Unbelief will remain of tremendous interest and impact When the book first appeared thirty years ago it was praised by naturalists and religious thinkers alike Sidney Hook called it a remarkable book written with verve and distinction James Collins termed it a lively and valuable essay from which a reflective religiously concerned reader can draw immense profit And The Washington Post reviewer claimed that Novak has written a rich relentlessly honest introduction to the problem of belief It is a deeply personal book rigorous in argument and open ended in conclusions Belief and Unbelief Michael Novak, 1967 Self Knowledge in Thomas Aquinas Richard T. Lambert, 2007-02-01 This study concerns the position of Saint Thomas Aquinas on human self knowledge the soul's knowledge of itself in medieval idiom Its main goal is to present a comprehensive account of Aquinas's philosophy of self knowledge by clarifying his texts on this topic and explaining why he made the claims he did A second objective is to situate Thomas's position on self awareness within general world and specific thirteenth century traditions concerning this theme And a third is to apply Aquinas's approach and insights to selected and contemporary issues that involve self knowledge such as the alleged paradoxes of self reflection and of unconscious awareness The primary approach is that of critical narrative which attempts to understand St Thomas's texts by posing critical questions for them While this questioning may expose certain texts as equivocal or unsupported usually Thomas emerges as coherent reasonable and better understood This work is serious scholarship that presumes reader interest in philosophical reflection and some background in medieval type thinking On the other hand the book is not narrowly specialized in Aquinas or a single methodology but includes broad reference to worldwide traditions and attempts to integrate St Thomas's approach into topics of contemporary interest The Myth of Romantic Love and Other Essays Michael Novak, 2017-07-28 Written by noted Catholic philosopher Michael Novak the selections in The Myth of Romantic Love and Other Essays highlight the arc of his intellectual career Collectively demonstrating the fundamental unity of Novak's work the sixteen essays in this book span a broad range of political economic and social topics The selections offer clarity of thinking for the sake of concrete ends For example The Myth of Romantic Love the chapter from which the title of this work is drawn sharply distinguishes the love that popular culture portrays from the true Christian vision of love And The Family out of Favor argues if things go well with the family life is worth living when the family falters life falls apart Thus true Christian love manifest in marriage and family life is a greater resource for civilized society than any other institution Although this collection shows that Novak's viewpoints did evolve over time he remains a thinker that is clearly rooted in the ancient and medieval Catholic tradition From his discussions of gender relations to economics culture and politics his perspective honors the primacy of man and his immediate experience and thereby ultimately glorifies the Creator Novak's writing will infuriate some readers and inspire many others but both comrades in arms and intellectual opponents will find the clarity and intensity of his writings undeniable The Unformed Conscience of Evangelicalism J. Daryl Charles, 2002-01-01 J Daryl Charles urges the evangelical church to better equip in character and moral vision its pastors leaders and members to constructively and effectively engage the ethical debates of the twenty first century The Comprehensive Guide to Apologetics Joseph M.

Rhetorical Invention and Religious Inquiry Walter Jost, Wendy Olmsted, 2000-01-01 This exceptional collection of writings offers for the first time a discussion among leading thinkers about the points at which rhetoric and religion illuminate and challenge each other The contributors to the volume are eminent theorists and critics in rhetoric theology and religion and they address a variety of problems and periods Together these writings shed light on religion as a human quest and rhetoric as the origin and sustainer of that quest They show that when pursued with intelligence and sensitivity rhetorical approaches to religion are capable of revitalizing both language and experience Rhetorical figures for example constitute forms of language that say what cannot be said in any other way and that move individuals toward religious truths that cannot be known in any other way When firmly placed within religious social and literary history the convergence of rhetoric and religion brings into focus crucial issues in several fields including philosophy psychology history and art and interprets relations among self language and world that are central to both past and present cultures Ninian Smart on World Religions: Traditions and the challenges of modernity. I. Individual traditions. Buddhism. 'Mysticism and scripture in Theravāda Buddhism' Ninian Smart, 2009 Ninian Smart came to public prominence as the founding Professor of the first British university Department of Religious Studies in the late 1960s His pioneering views on education in religion proved hugely influential at all levels from primary schools to academic teaching and research An unending string of publications many of them accessible to the general public sustained a reputation that became worldwide Here for the first time a selection of Ninian Smart's wide ranging writings is organised systematically under a set of categories which both comprehend and also illuminate his varied output over a career spanning half a century The editor John Shepherd was Principal Lecturer in Religion and Philosophy at the University of Cumbria He first met Smart as a postgraduate student and recently helped establish the Ninian Smart Archive at the University of Lancaster Knowledge and Virtue in Teaching and Learning Hugh Sockett, 2012-03-29 The challenge this book addresses is to demonstrate how in teaching content knowledge the development of intellectual and moral dispositions as virtues is not merely a good idea or peripheral to that content but deeply embedded in the logic of searching for knowledge and truth It offers a powerful example of how philosophy of education can be brought to bear on real problems of educational research and practice pointing the reader to re envision what it means to educate children and how we might prepare teachers to take on such a role by developing the person instead of simply knowledge and skills Connected intimately to the practice of teaching and teacher education the book sets forth an alternative theory of education where the developing person is at the center of education set in a moral space and a political order To this end a framework of public and personal knowledge forms the content to which personal dispositions are integral not peripheral The book's pedagogy is invitational welcoming its readers as companions in inquiry and thought about the moral aspects of what we teach as knowledge The American Founding Daniel N. Robinson, Richard N. Williams, 2012-06-28 America's Founding Fathers shared similar beliefs on the nature of civic life and the character of those supposed to be able to self govern Although they studied the failed republics of the ancient world they believed that classical ideals were still applicable to politics This unique contribution to the literature on American Founding gathers leading thinkers who set out not to relate its history but its intellectual underpinnings They explore the Founding Fathers' assumptions about civic life human nature political institutions private morality aesthetics education and history Chapters on natural law the Judeo Christian conception of human nature the influence of Aristotle and Cicero the symbolic role of architecture and the importance of education help understand the foundations that led to the Declaration of Independence and a constitutional charter that aimed to be universal in its human aspirations This authoritative work provides a conservative response to more liberal interpretations of America It will enrich the debate on civic life and be a key resource to anyone interested in America s experiment in ordered liberty The Philosopher's Index ,1978 History, Religion, and American Democracy Maurice Wohlgelelnter,1993-01-01 History Religion and American Democracy provides a fundamental review of four major themes naturalism and supernaturalism in an American context issues in the history of Judaism American social philosophy and the teaching and learning of democratic ideals in a pluralistic postmodern environment This book provides a naturalistic context for the deep analysis of religious theological as well as social and political themes Ninian Smart on World Religions John J. of consciousness Unbelievable Malcolm Duncan,2014-03-21 Christians face a tough task In a world without consensus all truth claims are regarded dubiously The Gospel does not change but what aspects should be highlighted in our rapidly changing culture How do we speak into the culture instead of just mirroring that culture Malcolm Duncan constructs his case around the core statements of the Apostles Creed If we believe in as God as Creator what does that mean about our treatment of His creation If we accept Christ as Saviour and Lord in what sense are we rescued redeemed remade If we accept the Holy Spirit as Guide where are we going and what are we here for We face an unbelievable task playing our part in the world s regeneration But God has confidence in us If we can be confident of what He has done for us then we can also be confident of what He wants to do through us Souled Out E. J. Dionne Jr.,2009-10-12 The religious and political winds are changing Tens of millions of religious Americans are reclaiming faith from those who would abuse it for narrow partisan and ideological purposes And more and more secular Americans are discovering common ground with believers on the great issues of social justice peace and the environment In Souled Out award winning journalist and commentator E J Dionne explains why the era of the Religious Right and the crude exploitation of faith for political advantage is over Based on years of research and writing Souled Out shows that the end of the Religious Right doesn t signal the decline of evangelical Christianity but rather its disentanglement from a political machine that sold it out to a narrow electoral agenda of such causes as opposition to gay marriage and abortion With insightful portraits of leading contemporary religious figures from Rick Warren and Richard Cizik to John Paul II and Benedict XVI Dionne shows that our great religions have always preached a broad message of hope for more just human arrangements and refused to be mere props for the powers that be Dionne also argues that the new atheist writers should be seen as a gift to believers a demand that they live up to their proclaimed values and embrace scientific and philosophical inquiry in a spirit of intellectual solidarity Written in the tradition of Reinhold and H Richard Niebuhr Souled Out will help change how we think and talk about religion and politics in the post Bush era
