The Political Economy of Apparel Exporting Industrial Parks in Ethiopia Mohammed Seid Ali,2024-07-14 This book discusses the maxim of industrialization with a human face or social upgrading which currently dominates the academic and actual policy discourses particularly in late comer economies of the Global South such as Ethiopia To understand industrialization with social upgrading in the current context of economic globalization characterized by the Global Value Chain GVC the book adopts the Human Rights HR perspective to labour relations and employs the Corporate Social Responsibility CSR approach to analyze the labour compliance of apparel exporting firms and their respective global brand buyers operating in Ethiopia's industrial parks. The findings reveal that Ethiopia's post 2005 state led industrialization development path which has firmly embraced strong business-state alliances has curbed the power of labour. Further, global brands' flawed CSR and poor purchasing practices have contributed to the ongoing labour abuses in the country's industrial parks. If the government does not consciously respond to the race to the bottom, the cold current of economic globalization that dominates the global apparel value chain, local industrial workers in Ethiopian industrial parks will continue to face dismal working conditions.

Ethiopia Boy Chris Beckett, 2013-02-28. Chris Beckett grew up in 1960s Ethiopia, a country he describes as a barefoot empire, home of black maned lions, old priests decked out like butterflies, and blazing young singers of Ethio jazz. Ethiopia Boy plunges the reader into praise poems that sing and boast and glory in the colours and textures of this extraordinary country. Here is a world of feasting on spicy kikwot and of famine sucking the water from rivers of lion buses and a prayer child where Earth sings greetings to the feet that walk on her. Haunted by the memory of his friend Abebe, the cook's son, Beckett celebrates and laments a lost boyhood in poems of vivid immediacy.
