Regulating Foreign Direct Investment for Development Nakib Mohammad Nasrullah, Mia Mahmudur Rahim, 2024-11-06 This book offers a comprehensive overview of the relationship between Foreign Direct Investment FDI regulation and sustainable development in Bangladesh It is widely accepted that FDI induced development is essential for the growth of undeveloped economies but it can create a conflict between the investors goal of profit maximisation and the host state s pursuit of economic gains FDI induced development is especially important for the economy of Bangladesh the focus of this book which argues that a balanced regulatory approach is necessary to ensure that FDI benefits all stakeholders In examining Bangladesh s FDI regulatory regime the authors reveal that it is investor centric and lacks a development oriented approach They discuss the relevant laws practices mechanisms and institutions that govern the entrance regulations and incentives for foreign investment as well as the protection of the environment and human rights with special attention to labour rights involuntary displacement and the protection of both the investors and the state in which they invest From this analysis the book recommends reforms to introduce development as a primary goal while maintaining Bangladesh s appeal as an FDI destination The book will be of interest to researchers students and academics in the fields of economics politics

sustainable development and economic growth It will also be of great interest to FDI strategists policymakers negotiators administrators and legislators in creating a balanced regulatory regime to attract FDIs for development Social Welfare Policies and Programmes in South Asia Channaveer R. M., Rajendra Baikady, Haruhiko Sakaguchi, Cheng Sheng-Li, 2019-08-30 This book examines the social welfare policies and programmes devised to address different societal issues and concerns across the South Asian countries It focuses on the design and delivery of social welfare policies related to women children the elderly and groups living below poverty level It brings a wide array of themes to the fore empowerment of vulnerable populations globalization and inclusive development intervention in Northeast India employment of elderly teachers in Sri Lanka regulations in prisons ageing South Asia and elderly care social exclusion and urban poor girl child education in India child protection in Bangladesh and women panchayat leaders to provide an evidence based understanding of social policy formulation implementation and monitoring in South Asia Comprehensive and topical this volume will be useful to scholars and researchers of political studies sociology development studies and public policy and also to practitioners and those in the development sector NGOs and think tanks Civil Remedies and Human Rights in Flux Ekaterina Aristova, Ugljesa Grusic, 2022-02-24 What private law avenues are open to victims of human rights violations This innovative new collection explores this question across sixteen jurisdictions in the Global South and Global North It examines existing mechanisms in domestic law for bringing civil claims in relation to the involvement of states corporations and individuals in specific categories of human rights violation i assault or unlawful arrest and detention of persons ii environmental harm and iii harmful or unfair labour conditions Taking a truly global perspective it assesses the question in jurisdictions as diverse as Kenya Switzerland the US and the Philippines A much needed and important new statement on how to respond to human rights violations Labour in the Clothing Industry in the Asia Pacific Vicki Crinis, Adrian Vickers, 2016-11-25 The clothing industry provides employment for 60 million workers worldwide More than a quarter of these workers are employed in the Asia Pacific region where the industry is based on subcontracted production on behalf of international buyers Rapid movements of manufacturing activity from country to country in search of cost advantages make clothing workers part of a globalizing labour market where they increasingly suffer from job insecurity This book presents carefully researched case studies which highlight the ways in which labour is informalized fragmented and made disposable by the globalization of production Chapters address issues pertaining to rights and citizenship and new forms of activism and organization in conjunction and coordination with diverse support groups consumers and wider global campaigns Contributors further examine the role of the nation state government regulatory bodies as well as independent monitoring systems such as the International Labour Organization Although there has been considerable effort directed to understanding how firms operate across multiple countries in studies of the organization of global production networks and the implications for complexities of scale de territorialization and state development projects there has been far less focus on how these processes produce precarious labour and reshape worker consciousness Offering new insights into the understanding and support of workers in the global textile and garment industry this book will be of interest to academics in a variety of disciplines including Asian Studies sociology political economy development human rights labour and gender Gender Power and Mediation Jamila A Chowdhury,2012-11-30 This book investigates the practice of family mediation and some of the challenges that may hinder its effective use by marginalised groups in a society Those challenges include gendered power disparity and family violence especially towards women and the discussion extends to how the challenges can be overcome through a practice of evaluative mediation to provide fair outcomes for women Unlike other contemporary books on mediation this book not only discusses different theories of power and equity in mediation it also includes a number of verbatim quotes from different mediation sessions to demonstrate how those theories are operationalised in a real life context While other contemporary texts on mediation focus on Western style facilitative mediation and its limitations in attaining fair justice for women enduring gendered power disparity and family violence this text emphasises an evaluative mediation style that is embedded in Eastern social practices Instead of focusing on gendered power disparity and family violence as limitations on the practice of facilitative mediation this book details the practice of evaluative mediation which may provide fair justice to women despite the presence of gendered power disparity and family violence in a society Shipbreaking in Developing Countries Md Saiful Karim,2017-12-06 This book explores the process of shipbreaking in developing countries with a particular focus on Bangladesh In the past shipbreaking the disposal of obsolete ships was a very common industrial activity in many developed countries However due to stringent domestic environmental and labour laws it is almost impossible for the increasing number of vessels to be disposed of domestically and now developing nations including Bangladesh China India Turkey and Pakistan regularly participate in this activity The shipbreaking yards in these countries are not only detrimental to the marine and coastal environment but also represent significant health hazards to local people and workers Given the global importance of the issue an effective legal and institutional framework for a sustainable operation of the shipbreaking industry is desperately needed Sitting at the intersection of three distinct fields environmental justice international environmental law and international maritime law this book offers an innovative take on the issues surrounding the shipbreaking process Drawing on the case study of Bangladesh due to its prominence in the shipbreaking industry the author implements an environmental justice framework to examine the issues of sustainability surrounding shipbreaking and analyses the relationship between social development economic development and environmental protection Maritime perspectives of environmental justice will also be highlighted through a discussion of the International Maritime Organization's role in the implementation of the Hong Kong Convention in developing countries This book will be of great interest to scholars of environmental justice international maritime law and international environmental law Architecture & Sustainable Development (vol.2) Magali Bodart,Arnaud Evrard,2011-07 This book of Proceedings presents the latest thinking and research in the rapidly evolving world of architecture and sustainable development through 255 selected papers by authors coming from over 60 countries Corporate Social Responsibility - Mythen und Maßnahmen Gisela

Burckhardt, 2014-01-09 In Zeiten der Globalisierung und Massenproduktion rückt verantwortungsvolle Unternehmensführung immer mehr in das Bewusstsein der Unternehmen. Damit Corporate Social Responsibility in Organisationen nicht als reine PR-Maßnahme angesehen wird, braucht es jedoch zunächst ein tiefes Verständnis, was sich hinter dem Begriff eigentlich verbirgt. Dieses Buch zeigt die Bandbreite von Unternehmensverantwortung zwischen Freiwilligkeit und Regulierung in globalen Lieferketten auf. Es stellt Maßnahmen und Initiativen von Unternehmen vor und gibt konkrete Empfehlungen, wie sinnvolle und nachhaltige CSR-Maßnahmen in Organisationen umgesetzt werden können. Last Nightshift in Savar Doug

Miller, 2012-07-01 In April 2005 a factory making sweaters for the European market collapsed like a pack of cards during the nightshift in Savar near Dhaka, Bangladesh. The circumstances of this disaster, which caused the deaths of 64 clothing workers and injured a further 84, proved to be a final straw for trade unionists and NGO activists who had long been concerned about the state of factory safety and the inadequacies of social protection in the Ready Made Garment industry in the South East Asian country. Last Nightshift in Savar presents a detailed account of the national and international campaign efforts to bring the owner and his multinational buyers to book. It is also an account of the emergence of two quite different but replicable buyer approaches to the provision of relief for workers in such calamitous circumstances, which hopefully sheds light on some of the contradictions of corporate social responsibility in the globalised economy in which we live today. Finally, it is the story of the efforts of the international trade union and NGO movement and of two men in particular to drive home change in compensation for industrial injury and fatality in the less developed world. Asian Yearbook of International Law, Volume 19 (2013) Kevin YL Tan, 2019-07-01 Launched in 1991, the Asian Yearbook of International Law is a major internationally refereed yearbook dedicated to international legal issues as seen primarily from an Asian perspective. It is published under the auspices of the Foundation for the Development of International Law in Asia (DILA) in collaboration with DILA Korea, the Secretariat of DILA in South Korea. When it was launched, the Yearbook was the first publication of its kind, edited by a team of leading international law scholars from across Asia. It provides a forum for the publication of articles in the field of international law and other Asian international legal topics. The objectives of the Yearbook are two-fold: First, to promote research, study and writing in the field of international law in Asia; and second, to provide an intellectual platform for the discussion and dissemination of Asian views and practices on contemporary international legal issues. Each volume of the Yearbook contains articles and shorter notes, a section on Asian state practice, an overview of the Asian states' participation in multilateral treaties, and succinct analysis of recent international legal developments in Asia, a bibliography that provides information on books, articles, notes and other materials dealing with international law in Asia, as well as book reviews. This publication is important for anyone working on international law and in
