Caribbean and the British Isles Bonds of Empire thus traces West Indians participation in a complex process of cultural transition as they manipulated Britishness and their relationship to it not only as colonial peoples but also as Britons

The Rise and Fall of the British Nation David Edgerton,2018-06-28 From the acclaimed author of Britain s War Machine and The Shock of the Old a bold reassessment of Britain s twentieth century It is usual to see the United Kingdom as an island of continuity in an otherwise convulsed and unstable Europe its political history a smooth sequence of administrations from building a welfare state to coping with decline Nobody would dream of writing the history of Germany say or the Soviet Union in this way David Edgerton s major new history breaks out of the confines of traditional British national history to redefine what it was to British and to reveal an unfamiliar place subject to huge disruptions This was not simply because of the world wars and global economic transformations but in its very nature Until the 1940s the United Kingdom was Edgerton argues an exceptional place liberal capitalist and anti nationalist at the heart of a European and global web of trade and influence Then as its global position collapsed it became for the first time and only briefly a real successful nation with shared goals horizons and industry before reinventing itself again in the 1970s as part of the European Union and as the host for international capital no longer capable of being a nation Packed with surprising examples and arguments The Rise and Fall of the British Nation gives us a grown up unsentimental history which takes business and warfare seriously and which is crucial at a moment of serious reconsideration for the country and its future

32 Counties Kieran Allen,2021-04-20 This is Irish history seen anew from below bristling with practical lessons for working class struggle today Eamonn McCann The 32 counties of Ireland were divided through imperial terror and gerrymandering Partition was borne from a Tory strategy to defend the British Empire and has spawned a carnival of reaction in Irish politics ever since Over the last 100 years conservative forces have dominated both states offering religious identity as a diversion from economic failures and inequality Through a sharp analysis of the history of partition Kieran Allen rejects the view that the two cultures of Catholic and Protestant communities lock people into permanent antagonism Instead the sectarian states have kept its citizens divided through political and economic measures like austerity competition for reduced services and low wages Overturning conventional narratives 32 Counties evokes the tradition of James Connolly and calls for an Irish unity movement from below to unite the North and the Republic into a secular socialist and united Ireland

British Fiction and the Cold War A. Hammond,2013-09-19 This book offers a unique analysis of the wide ranging responses of British novelists to the East West conflict Hammond analyses the treatment of such geopolitical currents as communism nuclearism clandestinity decolonisation and US superpowerdom and explores the literary forms which writers developed to capture the complexities of the age The Commonwealth Relations Office Year Book Great Britain. Office of Commonwealth Relations,1963 Modern English Society Judith Ryder,Harold Silver,2024-01-01 First published in 1970 Modern English Society is primarily concerned with the period since the Great Exhibition of 1851 Judith Ryder and Harold Silver begin by surveying the consequences good and ill of industrialization and go on to explore the changing pattern of social relationships to which it gave rise They discuss such topics as the growth of towns and of large scale administration the development of welfare services the emergence of mass politics the mass media and mass production They show how social attitudes and the interpretation of historical facts are colored by our ideological views In the second half of the book they examine the structure and functioning of contemporary social institutions the family education the economic and political systems and assess their implications for the individual for specific social groups and for society as a whole This book will be of interest to students of history and sociology Using Digital Information Services in the Library Workplace Marie Keen Shaw,2022-03-21 Library collections have rapidly evolved from a predominance of print books and journals to an ever growing mix of digital and print resources Support staff are expected to know how to help patrons select and use digital information services such as databases digital collections digital archives ebooks streaming video discovery search products the Internet and user focused library interfaces and applications Yet most library support staff LSS has not had training to become proficient in finding using and instructing others in the wide range of digital library services Using Digital Information Services in the Library Workplace An Introduction for Support Staff is an up to date text for professors who teach digital information use and management in library support staff programs and a handbook for those working in libraries who want to keep current as they expand their knowledge and skills This book will help support staff members to Know and use terms and concepts used in digital information services Use digital information services effectively Know how to evaluate and select databases and services Understand issues and trends in the library digital information industry Distinguish key features and enhancements found among vendors and providers of digital libraries digital collections databases and e texts Plan budget and write grants for digital services Understand the complexity and options of licensing and usage agreements for digital information services Know copyright permissions and acceptable use guidelines for digital information services Use government databases and other digitized systems and information sources Locate digital collections of museums universities and other sources that librarians can share with patrons Understand the concepts of preservation using digital technologies Create local digital resources of primary and historical materials and artifacts with metadata and cataloging for searchable access The Library Support Staff series is aimed for staff that work in libraries and want to enhance their skills college professors who teach library support staff instruction and or students who seek academic credit Each book in the series addresses a specific topic in an academic curriculum for library support staff

Periodizing Secularization Clive D. Field, 2019 Moving beyond the now somewhat tired debates about secularization as paradigm theory or master narrative Periodizing Secularization focuses upon the empirical evidence for secularization viewed in its descriptive sense as the waning social influence of religion in Britain Particular emphasis is attached to the two key performance indicators of religious allegiance and churchgoing each subsuming several sub indicators between 1880 and 1945 including the first substantive account of secularization during the fin de siècle A wide range of primary sources is deployed many of them relatively or entirely unknown and with due regard to their methodological and interpretative challenges On the back of them a cross cutting statistical measure of active church adherence is devised which clearly shows how secularization has been a reality and a gradual not revolutionary process The most likely causes of secularization were an incremental demise of a Sabbatarian culture coupled with the associated emergence of new leisure opportunities and transport links and of religious socialization in the church at home and in the school The analysis is also extended backwards to include a summary of developments during the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries and laterally to incorporate a preliminary evaluation of a six dimensional model of diffusive religion demonstrating that these alternative performance indicators have hitherto failed to prove that secularization has not occurred The book is designed as a prequel to the author's previous volumes on the chronology of British secularization Britain's Last Religious Revival 2015 and Secularization in the Long 1960s 2017 Together they offer a holistic picture of religious transformation in Britain during the key secularizing century of 1880 1980

Islamic Finance in the Financial Markets of Europe, Asia and America Faiza Ismail, 2022-08-30 Among international financial centres IFCs London is known as the Western hub of Islamic Finance on account of its well developed legal infrastructure However Brexit has threatened London's status and consequently the financial services industry is moving to Dublin to continue operating in the Euro region Similarly Islamic finance IF service providers in the UK are also looking to Dublin for expansion of this niche area in euro member states This is the first book to be written about Islamic finance operations in the Eurozone The book offers an in depth description of International Financial Centres and the growth of Islamic Finance compares the growth of Islamic finance in London Dubai and Kuala Lumpur outlines the implications of Brexit for financial service providers in London in general and Islamic investors in particular and also presents a case study of Ireland to establish the latter as the most appropriate country to promote IF in the Eurozone The time is particularly right for a book exploring the potential of Ireland to emerge as a Eurozone hub of Islamic finance as a result of Britain's exit from Europe The book will cater to the needs of readers studying IF in the disciplines of economics business law and religion A secondary market includes practitioners such as policymakers lawyers fund managers accountants regulators and international investors who will be interested in exploring the benefits that the UK and Ireland have to offer the Islamic finance industry
