Place and Progress in the Works of Elizabeth Gaskell Lesa Scholl, Emily Morris, 2016-03-09 Critical assessments of Elizabeth Gaskell have tended to emphasise the regional and provincial aspects of her writing but the scope of her influence extended across the globe Building on theories of space and place the contributors to this collection bring a variety of geographical industrial psychological and spatial perspectives to bear on the vast range of Gaskell s literary output and on her place within the narrative of British letters and national identity The advent of the railway and the increasing predominance of manufactory machinery reoriented the nation s physical and social countenance but alongside the excitement of progress and industry was a sense of fear and loss manifested through an idealization of the country home the pastoral retreat and the agricultural south In keeping with the theme of progress and change the essays follow parallel narratives that acknowledge both the angst and nostalgia produced by industrial progress and the excitement and awe occasioned by the potential of the empire Finally the volume engages with adaptation and cultural performance in keeping with the continuing importance of Gaskell in contemporary popular culture far beyond the historical and cultural environs of nineteenth century Manchester

Chan demonstrates that authors grasp of their marginality in the world Chinese literary space has been the impetus for rather than a barrier to aesthetic inventiveness He foregrounds the historical links between Malaysia and other Chinese speaking regions tracing how Mahua writers engage in the worlding of modern Chinese literature by navigating interconnected literary spaces Focusing on writers including Lin Cantian Han Suyin Wang Anyi and Li Yongping whose works craft signature literary languages Chan examines narrative representations of multilingual social realities and authorial reflections on colonial Malaya or independent Malaysia as valid literary terrain Delineating the inter Asian crossings of Mahua literary production physical journeys interactions among social groups and mindset shifts from the 1930s to the 2000s he contends that new perspectives from the periphery are essential to understanding the globalization of modern Chinese literature By emphasizing the inner diversities and connected histories in the margins Malaysian Crossings offers a powerful argument for remapping global Chinese literature and world literature
