Our NHS Andrew Seaton,2023-01-01 An engaging inclusive history of the NHS exploring its surprising survival and the people who have kept it running In recent decades a wave of appreciation for the NHS has swept across the UK Britons have clapped for frontline workers and championed the service as a distinctive national achievement All this has happened in the face of ideological opposition marketization and workforce crises But how did the NHS become what it is today In this wide ranging history Andrew Seaton examines the full story of the NHS He traces how the service has changed and adapted bringing together the experiences of patients staff from Britain and abroad and the service s wider supporters and opponents He explains not only why it survived the neoliberalism of the late twentieth century but also how it became a key marker of national identity Seaton emphasizes the resilience of the NHS perpetually in crisis and yet perennially enduring as well as the political values it embodies and the work of those who have tirelessly kept it afloat

32 Counties Kieran Allen,2021-04-20 This is Irish history seen anew from below bristling with practical lessons for working class struggle today Eamonn McCann The 32 counties of Ireland were divided through imperial terror and gerrymandering Partition was borne from a Tory strategy to defend the British Empire and has spawned a carnival of reaction in Irish politics ever since Over the last 100 years conservative forces have dominated both states offering religious identity as a diversion from economic failures and inequality Through a sharp analysis of the history of partition Kieran Allen rejects the view that the two cultures of Catholic and Protestant communities lock people into permanent antagonism Instead the sectarian states have kept its citizens divided through political and economic measures like austerity competition for reduced services and low wages Overturning conventional narratives 32 Counties evokes the tradition of James Connolly and calls for an Irish unity movement from below to unite the North and the Republic into a secular socialist and united Ireland
