

Frog and Toad

Reader's Theater Script

Adapted from The Garden from Frog and Toad Together by Arnold Lobel

Narrator: Frog was in his garden. Toad came walking by.

Toad: What a fine garden you have, Frog.

Frog: Yes. It is very nice, but it was hard work.

Toad: I wish I had a garden.

Frog: Here are some flower seeds. Plant them in the ground and soon you will have a garden.

Toad: How soon?

Frog: Quite soon.

Narrator: Toad ran home. He planted the flower seeds.

Toad: Now seeds. Start growing.

Narrator: The seeds did not start to grow. Toad looked at the ground again.

Toad: Now seeds. Start growing.

Narrator: The seeds did not start to grow. Toad put his head very close to the ground and shouted.

Toad: NOW SEEDS, START GROWING.

Narrator: Frog came running up the path.

Frog: What is all this noise?

Toad: My seeds will not grow.

Linguistics and Language Play Roger Berry,2025-04-16 This book constitutes a comprehensive study of the field of language play from a linguistic viewpoint demonstrating how linguistics can throw light on this important but often under rated aspect of language use It is both theoretical and descriptive in nature In terms of the former it proposes a ludic function of language that language is there to be played with and that this is a universal feature of human activity It rejects the traditional notion that language play is purely for fun or entertainment and stresses the serious nature of certain ludic activities such as cryptography It discusses the notion of linguistic creativity considering this to be inadequate in accounting for all aspects of language play It assesses the value of popular terms such as pun and introduces new terms concepts such as serendipity and internym to account for important phenomena From a descriptive viewpoint the major portion of the book is devoted to an examination of the various linguistic levels systems involved in language play syntax phonology morphology lexis semantics discourse and graphology followed by an extensive study based on original research of their application in various fields of linguistic endeavour for example advertising joke telling newspaper headlines secret language social interaction etc A consideration of the human element in terms of the varying relationships involved is a constant feature
