- There were two types of healers. Medicine Men and women. Medicine Men were important people in prehistoric tribes, as they could deal with spirits.
- Shaman were in charge of everyday health and knew about the healing power of herbs. For every day ailments and injuries with an obvious cause, they had a range of simple, effective remedies based on observation and common sense.

- You may feel ill if your spirit had been removed from your body or if an evil spirit had entered your body whilst you were sleeping.
- Prehistoric man wore lucky charms to keep away evil spirits and to stay free from disease.
