Cataloging Correctly for Kids Sheila S. Intner, Joanna F. Fountain, Jean Weihs, 2011 This text is based on guidelines issued by the ALCTS It is a one stop handbook for librarians who organize information for children Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 2005 A Journalist's Education in the Classroom David S. Awbrey, 2010-12-16

After an impressive career in journalism David S Awbrey became a middle school social studies teacher in Springfield Missouri a typical American community that he uses as a compelling case study to explore many of the social and academic problems facing education nationwide A Journalist's Education in the Classroom is an insightful poignant and often humorous account of his experiences teaching medieval and Renaissance history What Awbrey found in the classroom should alarm all Americans students obsessed with popular culture and disengaged from academics teachers intellectually unprepared for the 21st century global society and an educational establishment focused more on protecting its own power than on ensuring that the next generation possesses the scholastic skills necessary to advance American democracy and prosperity But Awbrey offers hope Citing historical precedents including Charlemagne's lifting Europe out of the ignorance of post Roman Empire barbarism and the 15th century Italian Renaissance he examines how the rediscovery of classical learning preserved Western civilization and persuasively argues that America's future hinges on a similar restoration of the liberal arts to primacy in the nation's schools

Houses of the Holy Mark C.

Harris, 2025-02-20 Houses of the Holy is a riveting true story of survival, perseverance, and a fight for justice that cuts to the heart of corruption. In this deeply unsettling exposé, Mark Harris pulls back the curtain on a powerful nexus where the federal government, state officials, far-right extremists, religious leaders, the mob, and the secretive world of Freemasonry converge in unholy alliances. This unprecedented journey reveals the depths of influence wielded by money and religion over politics and law enforcement, exposing the legacy of hate and corruption entwined within. Harris introduces a cast of larger-than-life characters, each as bizarre as they are terrifying: a convicted criminal with immunity from the law, a mobster's son linked to crime boss Santo Trafficante Jr., George W. Bush's former attorney, a doctor who handpicked the first astronauts, and a lineup of religious figures willing to overlook any sin to shield a monster. Alongside former Governor Rick Scott and future U.S. Attorney Generals, these figures build a twisted tapestry that Harris courageously unravels, shedding light on the shocking hidden power plays that sustain their authority.

Association of Mathematics Teachers Egan J. Chernoff, Peter Liljedahl, Sean Chorney, 2016-06-01 The teaching and learning of mathematics in British Columbia has a long and storied history. An integral part of the past 50 years (1962-2012) of this history has been the Journal of the British Columbia Association of Mathematics Teachers. This volume, which presents ten memorable articles from each of the past five decades (that is, 50 articles from the past 50 years of the journal), provides an opportunity to share this rich history with a wide range of individuals interested in the teaching and learning of mathematics and mathematics education. Each decade begins with an introduction providing a historical context and concludes with a commentary from a prominent member of the British Columbia mathematics education community. As a result, this monograph provides a historical account as well as a contemporary view of many of the trends and issues in the teaching and learning of mathematics. This volume is meant to serve as a resource for a variety of individuals, including teachers of mathematics, mathematics teacher educators, mathematics education researchers, historians, and undergraduate and graduate students. Most importantly, this volume is a celebratory retrospective on the work of the British Columbia Association of Mathematics Teachers.
