Human Behavior and the Larger Social Environment, Third Edition Miriam McNown Johnson, Rita Rhodes, 2015-06-15
From schools to the military and from class structure to cultural diversity all individuals function within complex social systems that shape them and are in turn shaped by them This text introduces students to these broader social contexts within which human behavior occurs and how a community's social settings may promote or deter people in maintaining or achieving personal health and well being Johnson and Rhodes use seven basic theoretical perspectives as the frameworks to explore how clients are impacted by social institutions and social structures Keeping up to date with emerging societal trends and changing environmental contexts is important and Human Behavior and the Larger Social Environment provides readers with the tools necessary to use their knowledge to provide appropriate interventions at all levels of practice as well as promote social and economic justice This book offers complex concepts in a simple format allowing students to analyze the relationship between individuals and various systems and better retain and apply their knowledge as they prepare to engage with clients and client systems

Social Work in India Bishnu Mohan Dash, Mithilesh Kumar, Siddheshwar Shukla, 2020-01-01 The present book is an attempt to decolonize the colonial legacy and professional imperialism in Social Work Education and has presented various Swadeshi indigenous perspectives and approaches relevant for social work education The book has tried to incorporate the significant contributions and developmental models propounded by the great Indian thinkers particularly Swami Vivekananda Dr Bhim Rao Ambedkar Mahatma Gandhi Vinoba Bhave and Nanaji Deshmukh which is highly relevant in the reconstruction of Indian Society The book will be extremely relevant for the students of social work sociology rural development development studies and allied social science disciplines at Bachelors and Masters level

The African Perspective of Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity in Higher Education Mfundu Mandla Masuku, Mbongeni Shadrack Sithole, 2025-05-23 This book uses a deconstruction context to highlight the challenges faced by the LGBTQIA communities in African Higher Education The discursive approach adopted in the book is critical in enabling the editors and their authors space to articulate the subtle problematic and context sensitive issues that drive exclusionary and unequal practices that students face in campus life The book goes on to present an advanced argument for integrating African epistemologies such as Ubuntu with social justice frameworks to foster cultural competence and diversity in higher education

Social Issues in Living Color Arthur W. Blume, 2017-02-16 Offering fresh and exciting approaches to solving global problems this book creatively views challenging social issues through the lens of racial and ethnic psychology As the demographic makeup of the American population continues to evolve understanding and addressing the psychological needs of ethnic minorities in the United States becomes more important to the overall health and well being of society This three volume set is the first publication to explicitly tackle social issues from the perspective of racial and ethnic psychology It uniquely presents racial and ethnic psychological perspectives on topics such as media criminal justice racism climate change gender bias and health and mental health disparities Volume one introduces readers to the basic scientific concepts of racial and ethnic minority psychology and then examines the intersectionality of race ethnicity gender and sexual orientation It also addresses how race and ethnicity affect communication styles leadership styles and media The second volume discusses the experiences of individuals within racial and ethnic minorities including overt racism covert racism and colonialism and addresses how ethnic minority psychology plays a role in our educational system poverty global climate change and sustainability The third volume covers ethics in health and research considers the causes of health and mental health disparities and identifies diversity initiatives that can improve the health and well being of all citizens not just racial and ethnic minority citizens

Our Social World Jeanne H. Ballantine, Keith A.
