This Life Martin Hägglund, 2019-03-05 Winner of the Ren Wellek Prize Named a Best Book of the Year by The Guardian The Millions and The Sydney Morning Herald A profound original and accessible book that offers a new secular vision of how we can lead our lives Ranging from fundamental existential questions to the most pressing social issues of our time This Life shows why our commitment to freedom and democracy should lead us beyond both religion and capitalism In this groundbreaking book the philosopher Martin Hägglund challenges our received notions of faith and freedom The faith we need to cultivate he argues is not a religious faith in eternity but a secular faith devoted to our finite life together He shows that all spiritual questions of freedom are inseparable from economic and material conditions What ultimately matters is how we treat one another in this life and what we do with our time together Hägglund develops new existential and political principles while transforming our understanding of spiritual life His critique of religion takes us to the heart of what it means to mourn our loved ones be committed and care about a sustainable world His critique of capitalism demonstrates that we fail to sustain our democratic values because our lives depend on wage labor In clear and pathbreaking terms H gglund explains why capitalism is inimical to our freedom and why we should instead pursue a novel form of democratic socialism In developing his vision of an emancipated secular life H gglund engages with great philosophers from Aristotle to Hegel and Marx literary writers from Dante to Proust and Knausgaard political economists from Mill to Keynes and Hayek and religious thinkers from Augustine to Kierkegaard and Martin Luther King Jr This Life gives us new access to our past for the sake of a different future Rediscovering Friendship Elisabeth

Moltmann-Wendel,2001 A new generation is awakening to the promise and power of women s friendship This accessible work draws connection between early Christian community and feminist notions of friendship The Mind of Consciousness Ray Morose,2011 The Mind of Consciousness The Mind of Consciousness is a book unfolding a new way with new process methods to evaluate your existence It is an experiential work written in textbook format that analytically delineates how and why consciousness and mind interface and function exposing the inter connective dependency of non biological consciousness and the biologically created mind Knowing how that interconnectivity interrelates provides avenues of exploration that reveal the fundamental nature of existence unveiling an innate purpose and direction embedded within consciousness This book works through all the major questions of existence using reproducible and experiential logic allowing everyone to experience the results of that exploration Throughout your life you have two realities at war with one another the primary I am reality formed from non biological consciousness and the secondary I am this or that reality formed by the biological mind You may not be aware of or even appreciate the internal conflict these two inter connective and inter dependent realities create However you experience the resultant turmoil and confusion their subliminal battles establish by not having an experiential appreciation of how those realities are formed function and potentially control your life The text delineates causation for those ongoing internal battles and outlines processes to help overcome the sense of frustration isolation and discord they generate This experiential method of examination creates empirical processes that afford you the opportunity to make an informed choice rather than a conditioned reaction providing a more secure productive directional and enjoyable life This book takes you into the core of your being turning it inside out exposing who and what you are by revealing a self created shadow world controlling your life without you being aware that control exists A Whole Life in Twelve Movies Kathleen Norris,Gareth Higgins,2024-10-15 Come to the movies with two celebrated spirituality writers American poet and author Kathleen Norris and Irish storyteller and peace activist Gareth Higgins In A Whole Life in Twelve Movies Norris and Higgins invite readers along as they discuss acclaimed movies that can help us better understand our lives from before birth to death and beyond Featuring 12 films including 2001 A Space Odyssey Malcolm X and Babette s Feast this book is perfect for individuals or groups to watch and discuss movies over the course of a year Each chapter recommends additional films and includes discussion questions ideally suited for churches small groups and book clubs As readers watch and read they will journey through the human life cycle and explore themes of existence goodness belonging vocation identity success generosity dealing with conflict and what it means to be human The book outlines a cinematic path toward a deeper spirituality and a more meaningful life for people across the faith spectrum and seekers alike It includes a foreword by James Martin SJ
